The publication of a Special Edition of the Australian Stamp Bulletin in September 1999 heralded the arrival of Personalised Greeting Stamps or P-Stamps as they are sometimes called but in reality it all stated six-months earlier at the 1999 World Stamp Expo ....

Introduction

This publication provides a illustrated descriptive listing, with suggested typical market values, of the numerous personalised stamp sheets, booklets and packs bearing Australia stamps and ad-joined labels, collectively called P-Stamps, produced by Australia Post and other commercial and non-commercial organisations since 1999.

Australia Post led the world in producing the world's first personalised stamp sheet to commemorate Australia 99 – the World Stamp Expo held in Melbourne during the period 19-24 March 1999.

Interest in these P-Stamp sheets has grown steadily and has now firmly established itself as a specialist area of stamp collecting.

This publication is issued as a guide for the P-Stamp sheet collector and attempts to fill a void which has remained unfilled for too long. Each sheet is given a unique reference number with a prefix corresponding to the section the sheet is listed under.

Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the details contained in this catalogue are accurate, corrections to this listing are welcomed and encouraged.

This catalogue is not a sales list. The prices shown are intended as a guide to market prices but please be aware that this is a relatively new area of stamp collecting and prices are variable. We hope that you enjoy using this guide

This catalogue is divided into six sections:

Section 1 Personalised Stamp Sheets (PSS)
Section 2 Souvenir Event Sheets (SES)
Section 3 Souvenir Stamp Packs (SSP)
Section 4 AFL Stamp booklets and packs (AFL)
Section 5 NRL Stamp booklets and packs (NRL)
Section 6 Prestige Stamp Booklets (PSB)

Section 1 - Personalised Stamp Sheets (PSS)

Personalised Stamp Sheets (PSS) comprise sheets of 10 or 20 stamps plus labels generally set within a decorative border with personalised labels bearing the customers photo or supplied image and sold at a premium above the face value of the actual stamps. Some sheets have been made available without decorative borders and these are termed Issue Sheets to differentiate these from the Personalised Stamp Sheet cousins.

Personalised Stamp Sheets were intended to be used by the public to celebrate a family event (e.g. a birth or wedding) and many of the sheet designs are so themed to encourage sales of these sheets for such purposes. However, many organisations, philatelic or otherwise, quickly saw the potential of P-Stamp sheets to promote their event or message and as a consequence some personalised stamp sheets have been proposed by such organisations with this purpose in mind. In this respect they compete and are often confused with Special Event Sheets which are generally produced in far greater numbers with a particular commercial purpose or event in mind.

Australia Post were quick to identify the potential of the Personalised Stamp Sheet as a medium to celebrate the AFL and NRL leagues and the participating teams. During the early years they issued a variety of “Footie” sheets as they have become known and there is a particularly good resource on the web which attempted to list these sheets and covers. See http://www.footystamps.com

Here is how Australia Post announced the arrival of Personalised Stamps…...

In the following pages we reprint articles which originally appeared in a special edition of Australian Stamp Bulleting issued in September 1999, reproduced here with the permission of Australia Post.

The World’s first personalised stamp sheet

Letter to Readers

Dear Readers

This special issue of the Stamp Bulletin contains very important news – the national launch of Personalised Stamps. At the Australia 99 World Stamp Expo in March, Australia Post trialled a world first Personalised Stamps. The concept allowed the public to 'personalise' a valid Australian postage stamp by having their photograph featured on a tab attached to the stamp. The Personalised Stamps (P-Stamps) were an outstanding success. Collectors and the general public, both Australian and international, strongly endorsed the concept. Given the positive response to the trial, Australia Post will now make P-Stamps available nationally as from 1 September. We believe P-Stamps will be very popular for use in association with special events – the person (s) celebrating the event could have their photograph featured on the tab. Of course, many people will want to have a P-Stamp just for the unique experience of personalising their normal mail or as a keepsake.

In view of this, on 1 September Australia Post will issue a set of six Personal Greetings stamps which will be available for personalisation as P-Stamps. That is, you can obtain the stamps with a tab containing text or you can use the P-Stamp service and obtain them with a photograph of yourself or a loved one on the tab. In addition to the six Personal Greetings designs, the P-Stamp service will also be available on the Polly Woodside stamp issued in March – similar to the design used in the P-Stamp trial at Australia 99.

What does this all mean for collectors? The concept of P-Stamps has been developed with collectors' interests in mind. That is why the 'personalisation' is achieved on a tab attached to the stamp, rather than the stamp itself. Thus collectors need only collect the stamps and not the vast number of potential personal variations on the tab. The P-Stamp service will ensure that postage remains relevant and contemporary – an important feature in an environment of competition from electronic communications. We are starting with seven designs which can be personalised – will there be others? That really depends on public reaction to the concept. If the demand is there, we will respond to it. Right now our plan to extend the range of stamps for personalisation is limited to a 'Celebrate 2000' stamp to be released on 1 November, and a new set of Personal Greetings designs in June 2000.

Will we allow images other than people to be featured on the tab? We are considering whether and under what controlled circumstances commercial and community organisations might be permitted to feature their logo on the tab. Advertising in the selvedge of stamps is not new – indeed it was quite common in the late nineteenth century. I expect to make a decision on this within the next six months. Personalised Stamps is a 'world first' initiative by Australia Post. The concept is designed to present postage as a contemporary, enjoyable form of communication and encourage the use of the mail for social greetings. The humble stamp is becoming a hero. Until next time,

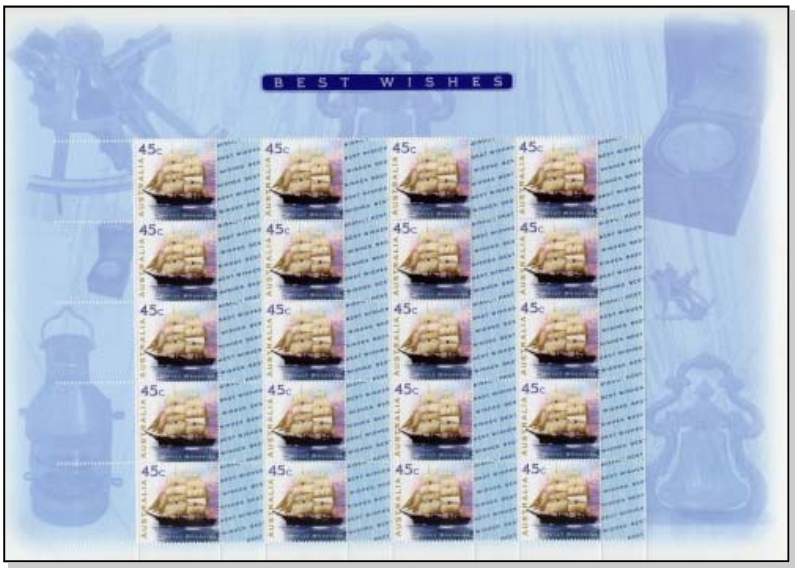

David Maiden,

Manager, Philatelic Group

Section 2 - Souvenir Event Sheet (SES)

Souvenir Event Sheet (SES) comprise sheets of 10 or 20 stamps plus labels set within a border with a generic sheet/label design and sold at a premium above the face value of the actual stamps. Souvenir Event Sheet (SES) are similar Personalised Stamp Sheets in that they contain generally the same valid Australia Post postage stamps but the borders and labels are designed by either Australia Post, commercial or non-organisations to commemorate an event, promote a theme or commercial message. Generally these sheets are produced in much smaller quantities and some commercial sheets are sold at a much higher premium than the Personalised Stamp Sheets.

The Polly Woodside P-Stamps as they appeared on 1 September 1999

The Melbourne Stamp Show organising committee released two P-Stamp Souvenir Sheets at the Show on the 4-6th October 2002 at the National Tennis Centre. The first contained 10 x 45c Globe, Map & Southern Cross stamp with a stylised footballer in the label tabs. The second comprised 20 x 45c stamps with similar background design and tabs featuring tennis and golf.

Melbourne Stamp Show 2002

2003 AFL Issue: The AFL Footy stamps for 2003 were released the week commencing 22nd April 2003. There are 16 sheets – one sheet for all of the 16 AFL teams. The new designed sheets contain the AFL logo, club logos and mascots. There are 20 players photos shown on each sheet. The names of the players are shown in the selvedge area. The base stamp in all stamp sheets is the new Australia & Globe Stamp. New for 2003 is a display stand included in with each sheets packaging.

2004 Brownlow Medal: On 20th September 2004 Chris Judd, of the West Coast Eagles, won his first Brownlow Medal. Australia Post issued a Souvenir Stamp Sheet on the 27th September 2004. This sheet was in the new size of 244mmx190mm rather than A4 as previous issues.

2004 Premiers: On 25th September 2004 Port Adelaide won their first AFL Premiership by defeating three time winners the Brisbane Lions, 17.11.113 to 10.13.73. Australia Post issued a Souvenir Event Sheet on the 27th September 2004. This sheet was in the new size of 244mmx190mm rather than A4 as previous issues.

2005 AFL Premiers: On 24th September 2005 the AFL's ugly duckling, the Sydney Swans won their first AFL Premiership in 72 years by defeating the West Coast Eagles by 4 points in a dour tight struggle. The final score was Sydney 8.10.58 to the Eagles 7.12.54. Australia Post issued a Souvenir Event Sheet on the 26th September 2005. This follows a precedent that was started in 2004 with a souvenir sheet to celebrate Port Adelaide's Victory.

2006 AFL Premiers: On 30th September 2006 the West Coast Eagles won their third AFL Premiership by defeating the Sydney Swans by 1 points in a dour tight struggle. The final score was Eagles 12.13.85 to the Eagles 12.12.84. Australia Post issued a Souvenir Stamp Sheet on the 2nd October 2006. This follows a precedent that was started in 2004 with a souvenir sheet to celebrate Port Adelaide's Victory.

Bernie Quinlan P stamp Sheet: The Fitzroy Historical Society produced a Souvenir Stamp Sheetlet with ten 50c Kangaroo and flag stamps with "Superboot" in the selvedge. Fitzroy, a foundation member of the VFL, had amalgamated with the Brisbane Bears to become the Brisbane Lions. Bernie Quinlan played 189 games with Fitzroy and kicked 576 goals. He was already an established star when he came to Fitzroy after 178 games for Footscray. He played three times for Victoria while at Fitzroy. He shared the 1981 Brownlow Medal with Barry Round.

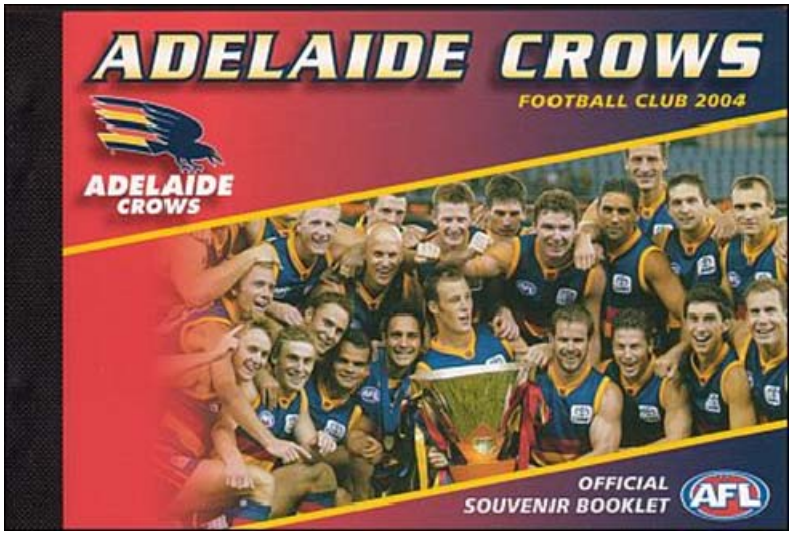

2007 AFL Premiers: On 29th September 2007, after 44 years, Geelong finally won the Premiership with a record margin win over Port Adelaide. Australia Post following tradition released a Souvenir Event Sheet. Australia Post issued a limited edition Commemorative Medallion cover with the P stamp on the 20th November 2007.

2008 AFL Premiers: On 27th September 2008, Hawthorn won the Premiership with a 26pt win over the favourite Geelong. Australia Post following tradition released a Souvenir Event Sheet. For the second year Australia Post issued a limited edition Commemorative Medallion on the 17th November 2008.

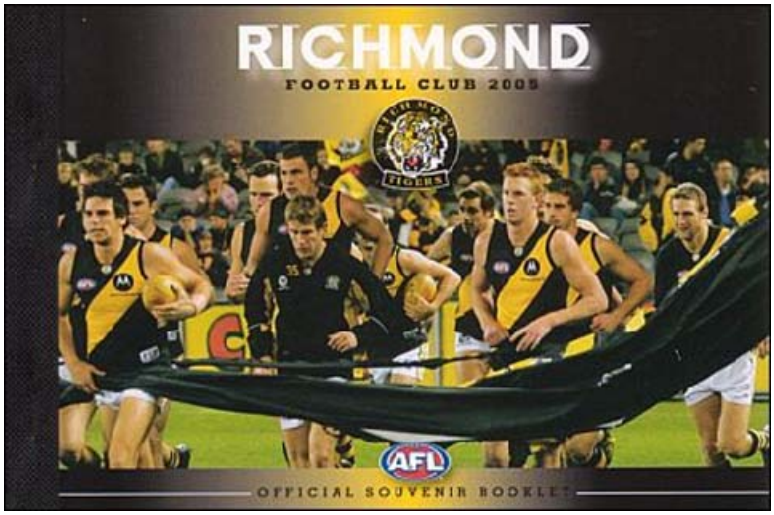

2009 AFL Premiers: On 26th September 2009, Geelong won the Premiership with a 12pt win over the highly fancied Saint Kilda. Australia Post following tradition released a Souvenir Stamp Sheet on the 29th September 2009. For the third year running Australia Post issued a limited edition Commemorative Medallion on the 17th November 2008.

Section 3 - AFL Stamp booklets and packs (AFL)

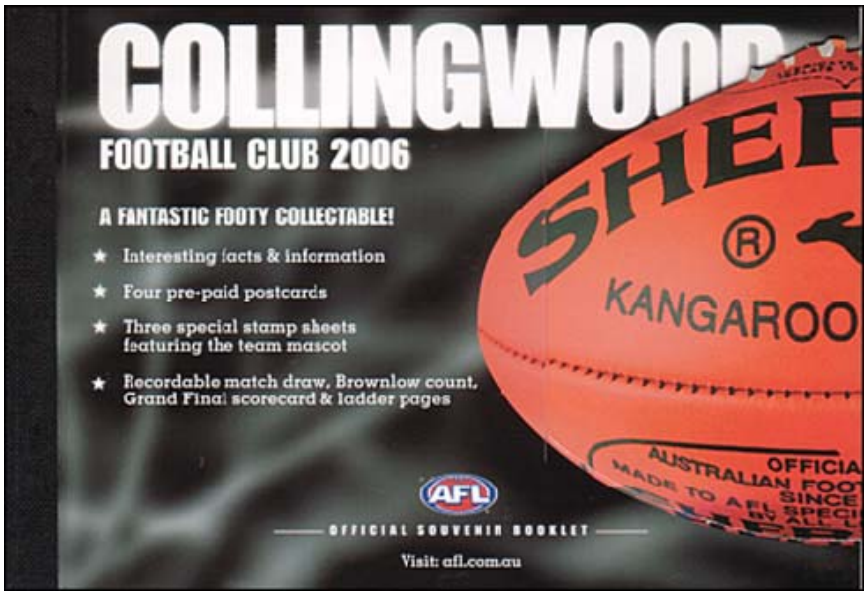

2004 AFL Issue: The 2004 Issue were a departure from the previous years as the P stamps were issued as "Souvenir Booklets" rather than A4 sheets. The booklets were issued in a staggered fashion over four weeks, with 4 clubs a week starting from the 14th April 2004. Each Booklet has 20 stamps for the 10 players. The 10 team players are nominated by the club in the following categories: Captain, Vice-captain(s), Best and fairest 1, 2, 3 (2003), Leading goal kicker (2003), Club-nominated star players and Most promising young player. The Contents consist of Information about featured players (one page per player featured in tabs), Club history page – when founded, premiership wins, Brownlows, etc. Club song, List of players names for 2004 and a Page on the coach.

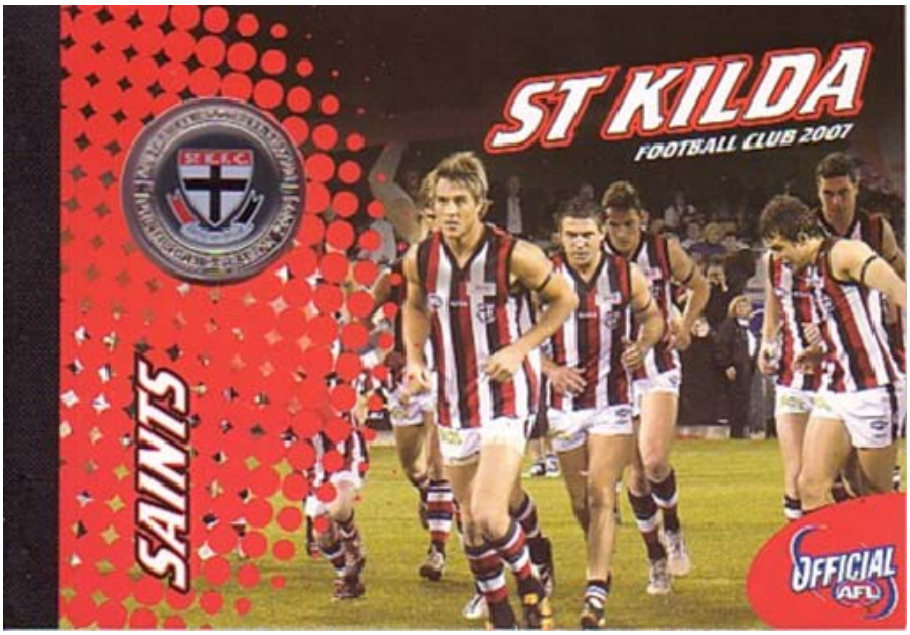

2005 AFL Issue: The 2005 Issue followed the "Souvenir Booklets" format established in 2004. Each Booklet had 20 stamps for the 10 players.

2006 AFL Issue: The 2006 Issue followed the "Souvenir Booklets" format established in 2004. Each Booklet had 20 stamps for the 10 players.

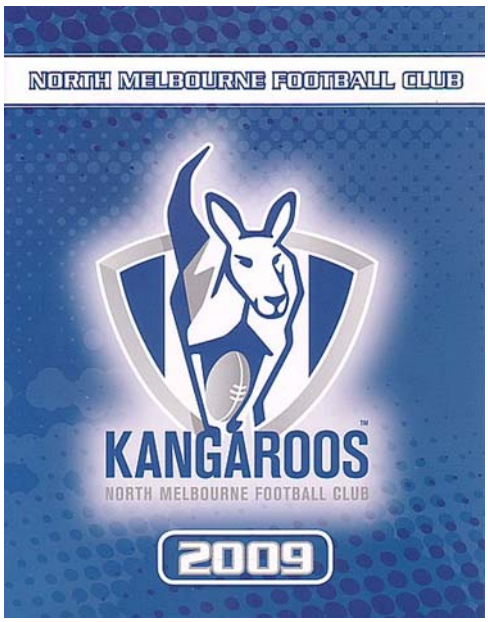

2007 AFL Issue: 2007 saw Australia Post insert a medallion in the annual AFL P stamp booklet cover for the first time.

2008 AFL Commemorative Folders: The 2008 AFL P stamp sheets were issued in a new format of 2 sheets of ten players on a foldout three card sheet with the clubs logo on the front. The previous issues since 2000 had been an A4 format. Another significant change was the positioning of the player in the tab on both the right and left of the globe and Southern Cross stamp. This was similar to the initial P stamp issue in 1999 at the Australia 99 World Stamp Expo in Melbourne when the tab was on the left. Subsequently the tab was on the right.

2009 AFL Commemorative Folders: The 2009 AFL P stamps sheets were issued in a new format of 2 sheets of ten players on a foldout three card sheet with the clubs logo on the front. Up until 2008 the previous issues since 2000 had been an A4 format. Another significant change was the positioning of the player in the tab on both the right and left of the globe and Southern Cross stamp.

The Catalogue is arranged in six sections.
