Following the publication of the First Edition of the Customised Stamp Sheets of Great Britain Catalogue in 2007 Ridgewood Publishing was approached to design/produce Smilers sheets for various clients. Ridgewood Stamp Sheets was created to provide this service and we now design and supply our own customised stamp sheets, as illustrated in this catalogue.

Our sheets are produced in very limited numbers to ensure they retain their value as collectibles and these fantastic sheets are available to order by mail or on-line via our website at www.smilers-info.com. Each of our customised stamp sheets has been lovingly designed by us and printed by Royal Mail in very limited quantities.

They are available to purchase now from www.smilers-info.com or by mail order. You can also join our STAMP SHEET CLUB and be kept informed of any new issues and updates plus the opportunity to buy our sheets at a loyalty discount of 10% off our normal retail price. We already have a growing number of satisfied customers who have joined. Why not join the Ridgewood Stamp Sheet Club and enjoy the following benefits:

- Special offers to members before the sheets are released for general sale
- A discounted members only price of at least 10% discount per sheet
- No commitment to purchase every sheet – only those you want
- No pre-payment required until you have selected what sheets you want
- Matched sheet numbers for every issue, where possible
- Quality packaging to preserve condition in transit.

Customised Stamp Sheets of Great Britain

Foreword

Welcome to the third (digital) edition of The Customised Stamp Sheets of Great Britain - the definitive collectors guide to all British stamp/label stamp sheets, now established as the leading reference source for collectors of these customised stamp sheets, in all their formats. Since the second edition was published in February 2010 interest in this branch of stamp collecting has perhaps waxed and waned with the arrival of many new sheets and variants. As a result, given the current popularity of these sheets it is felt uneconomic to sanction a hard-print of this edition, given that all sheets issued since 2010 are still listed at our website. However, for the die-hard Smilers collector I have produced this digital version which tries to fill a gap.

Customised Stamp Sheets of Great Britain

Introduction

This guide provides a comprehensive listing of all Customised Stamp Sheets issued by Royal Mail, Isle of Man Post and other commercial organisations up to the end of January 2010. It is issued as a reference work for the customised stamp sheet collector. Each sheet is given a unique reference number with a prefix corresponding to the section the sheet is listed under. Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the details contained in this catalogue are accurate, corrections to this listing are welcomed and encouraged.

This catalogue is not a sales list. The prices shown are intended as a guide to market prices but please be aware that this is a relatively new area of stamp collecting and prices are subject to change. There has been strong interest in this branch of stamp collecting since the First Edition of this catalogue was issued and we would like to think that this has been due in part to the sharing of information that this publication has promoted. This catalogue is divided into nine chapters. A brief description of each Chapter now follows.

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

The Smilers Story traces the evolution of the early greetings stamps, issued in 1989, to the present day smilers stamps and their various incarnations along the way. It documents Royal Mail's earlier attempts to introduce customised mail which in hindsight was truly ground breaking in the world of postal authorities and years ahead of its international peers. It examines the development of generic Smilers sheets, Customised Smilers sheets, Business Customised stamp sheets through to the recently introduced Commemorative Stamp Sheets and Smilers Packs, featuring the Smilers for Kids range of products.

Chapter 2 - Generic / Collector Sheets

Generic Stamp Sheets comprise small sheets of 10 or 20 stamps plus photo-tabs set within a border with a generic sheet/tab design commemorating or celebrating an event or theme and sold at a premium above the face value of the actual stamps. Generic Stamp Sheets may be obtained directly from Royal Mail at Tallents House, Edinburgh. Between 2000 and 2016, the public were able to personalise the photo-tabs of some of these Generic / Collector sheets by sending their own images to Royal Mail, Tallents House for printing. The cost of these Customised / Personalised Sheets, branded Smilers by Royal Mail, was higher than the standard Generic sheets. This service ceased in 2016.

Chapter 3 - Customised / Personalised Sheets

Customised / Personalised Sheets or Smilers are a variant of the Generic / Collector Sheets. Since the original Stamp Show 2000 the public have been able to have their photos printed alongside the stamps in place of the generic tabs. This service, initially available only from booths at events such as Stamp Show 2000, was extended and made available to the public by post or by ordering on-line from the Royal Mail website. These sheets were available from the Royal Mail at a premium above the normal price of the Generic Stamp Sheets. Appendix A provides a pictorial summary and listing of all the stamps used by Royal Mail in its series of Smilers. Royal Mail adopted the trademark Smilers after Australia Post took exception to their use of Personalised Stamps, which had earlier been adopted and registered by Australia Post.

Chapter 4 - Business Customised Sheets

Business Customised Sheets are similar to Generic / Collector Sheets in that they contain generally the same Royal Mail stamps but the borders and photo-tabs are designed by Philatelic and other commercial organisations to promote a theme, anniversary or event. Generally these sheets are produced in much smaller quantities and are sold at a much higher premium than the Generic / Collector Sheets.

Chapter 5 - Themed Sheets and Covers

Chapter 5 comprises a listing of what we have termed Themed Customised Stamp Sheets. These are essentially Customised Stamp sheets (Smilers) which have been produced not for personal use on mail but for the philatelic market. Since the advent of the definitive-sized Smilers sheets late in 2005 there has been keen interest in extending the concept of Customised Stamp Sheets into special event or themed sheets, created by Smilers sheet enthusiasts

Chapter 6 - Commemorative Stamp Sheets

Commemorative Stamp Sheets were introduced by Royal Mail in 2008 and are in all respects similar in format and design to Business Customised Stamp sheets but are produced directly by Royal Mail to commemorate or mark anniversaries of national importance which didn't quite make it into the annual stamp programme. They continued until 2018 when these issues ceased.

Chapter 7 - Smilers for Kids Packs

Royal Mail introduced another Smilers innovation in 2008 in the form of Smilers-for-kids packs. The concept was to print A5 sized, sheets of 10 stamps and generic-tabs targeted at children, or perhaps more correctly the parents of children, supplied in a pack containing other activity-based material in support of the pack theme, including colouring, letter-writing activities etc., designed to attract the attention of Royal Mail's younger customers. The Smilers for Kids packs as they were branded by Royal Mail illustrated certain well known children's characters such as the Flower Fairies, Noddy and Friends, Mr Men and Little Miss and the World of Beatrix Potter.

Appendix A - Smilers Stamps

Appendix A provides a summary and listing of the Smilers stamps used by Royal Mail to date, as referenced in its Smilers publicity material.

Appendix B - Smilers Publicity

Appendix B provides a convenient reference collection of various Royal Mail produced and other Smilers publicity leaflets, which are referenced throughout the catalogue.

The Bear Facts

The issue of a new book of stamps in 1989 heralded a shift in Post Office stamp-selling policy. The stamp-booklet in question was the 1989 Greetings booklet and, for virtually the first time, it contained stamps which could not be regarded as either definitive or commemorative. The first definitive was the 1d Black of 1840 and, as the name implies, these tend to be unchanging in design and available over a long period.

Commemoratives were first introduced in 1924 and were only issued to commemorate important events or anniversaries and, from 1966 (with the Landscape issue), themes of relevance to Britain or British culture. Some exceptions can be noted – the Charity issue of 1974, and a few stamps of relevance to international themes or anniversaries, but they are few and far between. The stamp designs used in the Greetings booklet stamps, together with their accompanying generic tabs can be seen as the forerunners to the Smilers sheets that followed in 2000.

The first Greetings booklet featured a series of five stamps depicting images (a teddy bear, Cupid, etc) which permitted a form of 'personalised' expression (or choice) dependant upon the stamp image used. Between the period 1989 to 1997, a total of ten Greetings booklets were to be issued, utilising variations on the Greeting theme. Perhaps the most significant was the set which first appeared in 1990, a set of 10 stamps depicting famous "smiles". Whilst these were again re-issued with non-value indicators in 1991, the set re-appeared again as part of a souvenir stamp sheet issued to coincide with the International Stamp Show 2000. Many of the Greetings series of stamp-booklets were also supplied with a set of special labels bearing greetings messages which, together with the stamps, could be combined to add a personalised message – does this sound familiar?

Occasions or Smilers?

What stamp collectors have affectionately come to term as Smilers stamps and sheets could have perhaps more appropriately, been called Greetings or Occasions sheets, after the stamps used by Royal Mail in the production of the early Smilers stamp sheets. However, the ability to have your photograph alongside a Royal Mail stamp was new for the British public and what was needed was an identity distinct from the Greetings stamps that would promote this as a fun thing to do. The selected brand Smilers is therefore perhaps best described as an evolution, rather than a revolution, having its roots in the earlier Greetings/Occasions stamp issues by Royal Mail.

From about the early 1990's the Post Office/Royal Mail embarked on a series of marketing initiatives, designed perhaps to broaden their customer base but always with a philatelic theme. The Post Office had sold crockery at a Stampex event in the late 70's depicting the Wildlife series from that period. The introduction of the Post-a-Photo service is an important development in the Smilers Story and provides a clear link between the early Greetings stamps of the 80's and 90's to the Smilers sheets of the new millennium.

During 1992 Royal Mail introduced a personalised postcard service called Post-a-Photo. Initially the subject of a Royal Mail promotion, Royal Mail customers were invited to submit a negative and 4 x 1st class stamps to Royal Mail who in return agreed to supply 20 personalised postcards using the negative provided. Royal Mail may have underestimated the popularity of this product, or perhaps the manufacturer was unable to fulfil all the orders, but shortly afterwards Royal Mail apologised for the initial delay in providing the postcards and subsequently its cancellation of some orders. The Post-a-Photo promotion was subsequently cancelled completely by Royal Mail as the text of the following letter and postcard describes. A complimentary book of stamps issued January 1992 was supplied to all disappointed Royal Mail customers.

Following the initial Post-a-Photo promotion, Royal Mail did appoint another postcard manufacturer because by November 1992 customers were again being contacted to supply their negatives by 6th November 1992, the closing date for the re-launched service.

As part of that effort, two postcards were issued to disappointed customers by Royal Mail which featured two of the smilers stamps. The first "Bear with us ..." advises customers of a problem. The second "Hurry along now!" advises customers of the closing date for the service.

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

Generic / Collector Sheets

Following the success of the Stamp Show 2000 sheet and 2000 Christmas sheets, The Post Office issued five different Customised Smilers sheets in May 2001 featuring the Hallmark stamps of the previous February. The Hallmarks Generic Smilers sheet did not appear until 5th June 2001 and whilst it is not clear why this sheet was delayed it was a welcomed move by Royal Mail. Until then the only way collectors could obtain a set of Hallmark Smilers stamps and generic-tabs was to buy a set of five customised sheets. Over sixty sheet designs have now been released, averaging about six per year. The early ones are hard to find in unblemished condition – many have minor bends/creases from handling, or have been folded in half in the case of sheets supplied by post from Edinburgh. As with normal commemorative issues, the generic sheets are usually available from philatelic counters for 12 months (this was extended to 13 months for one issue, GS-015) unless sold out earlier.

The Stamp Show 2000 sheet sold just fewer than 52,000 copies, but the sales figures for subsequent sheets have never been released. Bearing in mind the premium over face most sales are likely to be philatelic, but commercially used singles can be found in kilo-ware, particularly of the Christmas issues. Even so, sales of GS-001 were lower than any regular GB commemorative issue (the closest, the £1 PUC of 1929 sold 61,000 copies). Interest in the early sheets tailed off rapidly after GS-001, before picking up at the end of 2002. Some are quite scarce, notably the 2001 Christmas pair.

Commemorative and definitive releases are normally publicised in Post Office outlets by means of A4 coloured illustrations – the so-called ‘grille’ cards, see page 1-1. Apart from the initial issues (Xmas 2000) none of the Generic Smilers sheets have been publicised in this way, but the designs are normally illustrated in the Royal Mail ‘preview’ brochures well in advance of issue using artists mock-ups. The issued versions often show modifications when actually released and in at least two instances the original printings have been issued in error alongside the revised versions, notably the 2003 Occasions sheet and the 2005 ITV sheet, refer page 2-7 and 2-13.

Customised Smilers

The Post Office introduced ‘Smilers’ sheets as a way of ‘personalising’ postage stamps at the London International Stamp Exhibition in May 2000. The A4 sized sheets contained ten (later, twenty) stamps se-tenant with an unprinted photo tab which could be customised with a photograph. The service was quite expensive. The initial cost for a single sheet of ten personalised stamps was £5.95 (£5.00 each for two or more sheets, a premium of £4.80 on the cost of twenty stamps). The current cost is £13.50 per personalised sheet of twenty first-class stamps (a premium of £5.70 over face), though this falls to £12.50 for two or more sheets. The Post Office, subsequently renamed Consignia plc (2001), then Royal Mail Group plc (2002) and currently Royal Mail Group Ltd (2006), intended the Smilers trademark to apply to personalised stamp sheets only, but at the same time a sheet with printed tabs was made available at a lower price (£2.95 – a 35p surcharge on the cost of the stamps). The Post Office used to refer to these simply as generic sheets, but now call these Generic Smilers™ Sheets. Since 2005 this has changed on all sheets to Generic Smilers® Sheets. In a more recent development (from late 2006), Royal Mail have now started omitting the word Smilers from those generic sheets not available in personalised format, e.g. the We Shall Remember Them sheet, Wembley and Machin sheets have the brand Smilers omitted. Whilst somewhat confusing all generic sheets are sold under the banner of the Generic Smilers Sheets via Royal Mail's on-line order facility but not all sheet are available in personalised format. It has become even more confusing with the recent release of the Castles series of Generic Smilers Sheets all of which are branded Smilers but are not available in personalised formats! Stanley Gibbons initially announced that since Smilers sheets were not available at face they would be relegated to the status of catalogue footnotes, and this, coupled with the cost (over single-set new issues) and unwieldy sheet sizes, led to a steady decline in sales of the subsequent sheets until interest took off in late 2002. Royal Mail released a dedicated album for the series in 2003 and Gibbons eventually listed the generic versions in the 2004 GB ‘Concise’ catalogue, which further fuelled demand.

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

The personalised sheets are footnoted by Gibbons in the GB 'Concise', but not illustrated. In contrast to the generic / collector series, they have received scant attention in the philatelic literature – to the extent that many collectors have never seen them. From 2000 until production ceased in 2016 there were about seventy basic designs have been released: some are almost identical to the generic versions, but most contain unique border designs and/or stamp combinations. Several were produced by a different printer to that responsible for the generic issue, resulting in recognisably different stamps. The print runs of 'blanks' for personalisation are much lower than for the generic sheets and some have been subjected to (unannounced) reprints. Royal Mail has strict guidelines as to the type of image that can be reproduced in the blank tabs: these are displayed on Post Office publicity brochures and on the website. It is believed that the first issue was only available with photographic portraits, but all subsequent issues could be customised with pictorial images. These are scarce on the early sheets - examples are illustrated below for Xmas 2000, sold to raise funds for New Marnoch Church in Aberchirder, Scotland.

The very first Themed Smilers featuring New Marnoch Church in Aberchirder

Given the interest expressed by collectors, philatelic sales of these sheets would appear to have been small (the first issue apart) until interest was again renewed late 2005. Early Smilers sheets are difficult to find intact, either having been broken up for postage or gathering dust as sentimental keepsakes. On the plus side, when they occasionally do surface they can often be bought for less than the generic equivalents! Their relative scarcities do not parallel the generic series – the 2000 and 2001 Christmas issues are among the 'easier' personalised sheets. Paradoxically, commercially used personalised singles crop up in kiloware more frequently than do singles from the generic sheets, so demand from the public has clearly been high enough for Royal Mail to justify the service. Most sheets available after late 2005 are much easier to find, though there are some exceptions, such as the ITV sheet (CS-026) which was withdrawn unexpectedly in mid-2006.

The period of sales of these sheets has been difficult to establish: they usually become available on the same date as the generic versions, but withdrawal dates are rarely announced. Some, such as the Stamp Show 2000, were available for just a few weeks while some, such as the 'Moving Home' Occasions sheet, had been on sale continuously since introduction in 2002 up until 2006. Some are 'seasonal' – the Xmas 2002 sheet could be ordered from October to December each year until the end of 2004, but not in the intervening months. The only reliable way of keeping track is by phoning the 'Smilers helpline' periodically and enquiring which are still available.

Instant Smilers

Visitors to The Stamp Show 2000 were, for the first time in Britain, able to purchase a sheet of postage stamps with their own image printed on photo-tabs adjacent to the stamps and create their very own personalised souvenir covers. Customers completed an order form, had their photographs taken and the resulting image was printed onto sheets containing blank photo-tabs. The whole process took about 10 minutes. The exhibition attracted 55,000 visitors and this innovation proved popular with visitors – a Post Office survey dated July 2000 cited 23% of those surveyed intended to buy the personalised stamps. The resulting personalised Smilers Sheet was presented to the customer in an attractive red folder with a distinctive Smile cut-out, very reminiscent of the cover of the 1990 Greetings stamp-booklet which had used the same stamp images as the personalised Instant Smilers sheet. Visitors to the show could re-order additional copies of their personalised Smilers Sheets by sending a special re-order form to Royal Mail Smilers, House of Questa, Byfleet at a cost of £5 each.

Stamp Show 2000 Instant Smilers Re-Order

Regional Instant Smilers

The Instant Smilers service was again tested at six regional Post Offices which had a Philatelic Counter (Bristol, Cambridge, Canterbury, Edinburgh, London and Manchester) between October 2001 and January 2002. Whilst widely publicised in the Post Offices where these booths were located, and within the philatelic press, it was not widely known to the general public and consumer uptake was reportedly 'negligible'.

An Instant Smilers Photo Booth

The Instant Smilers facility surfaced again as a single booth at Stampex in Autumn 2005 and has also appeared at various trade-related Royal Mail product launches and subsequent Stampex events. A single booth also operated at the London Boat Show in January 2006. The 2006 Boat Show customers were also offered an option of customising sheets with the Boat Show logo, instead of a personal photo. Whilst it is understood that the Instant Smilers sheets printed with the show's logo on the photo-tabs were never officially sanctioned or approved by Royal Mail, it is probably true to say that the recent philatelic interest in Themed Customised Smilers sheets since that event can be traced back to the excitement generated by the pair of Boat Show Smilers sheets, see also page 5-11

Smilers by Post/On-Line

The mail-order personalisation service operated (intermittently at first) from October 2000, in which the customer posted photographs to Edinburgh, and from 29th November 2002 images could be submitted on-line in digital format. The Royal Mail website www.royalmail.com/portal/rm/shop is easy to use and payment is by credit or direct debit card. The ordering process can take up to two weeks at times of peak demand (the Christmas period), but can be much faster, in a matter of days.

From July 2003 the sheets were given 'SM' codes to facilitate orders. This was after release of the 'Multiple Choice' sheet, but before the 'Cartoon Crossword' sheet. The apparent random assignation of SM codes from SM1 (Hello) to SM11 (Christmas 2002) may reflect the popularity of the sheets available at the time; they then become sequential from SM12 (Crosswords). A new 'DS' series code was introduced for the self-adhesive stamps in definitive format issued in October 2005. From 2008 Royal Mail again revised their Smilers stamp coding system reverting to a system using a SM prefix. Please refer to Appendix B for a fuller description of Royal Mail SM and Smilers stamp coding.

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

Business Customised Sheets

Royal Mail introduced this service in December 2002. It was aimed at customers willing to place an order of 100-6000+ sheets, the customer being able to add its own design to both photo-tabs and border according to their requirements. At present these have to be ordered by posting a digital CD containing artwork to Tallents House; a brochure can be downloaded from the Royal Mail website www.royalmail.com/smilers. choose the Business Customised option.

The current (2010) cost of this service varies depending on the type of sheet required (gummed or self adhesive) and the number of stamps per sheet (10 or 20). The 10 stamp sheet starts at £17.50/£24.50 (gummed/self-adhesive) per sheet for the minimum order (100), falling to £4.25/£4.50 per sheet for 6000 or more sheets. Sheets of twenty start at £21.25/£28.25, falling to £7.75/£8 for 6000 or more sheets. For a small premium the sheets can be numbered, to cater for limited-edition collectors. To date the service has primarily been used by those catering to the memorabilia and collecting market, resulting in a plethora of limited edition sheets commemorating topics as diverse as military anniversaries, sports teams and science-fiction characters. About two-hundred and fifty sheets have appeared so far, with print runs from as little as 100 sheets extending right up to about nearly 15,000 sheets.

Depending on the stamp (s) chosen, se-tenant combinations unavailable from other sources can be created. The sheets have attracted a relatively strong interest and, as the print runs are miniscule compared to the generic ones, may well be the rarities of tomorrow.

Royal Mail evolves the range of stamps for customisation by this service and many designs offered at the outset are no longer available. Furthermore, in some cases the printer employed is different to that employed for production of the normal issue and Smilers sheets, resulting in recognisably different stamps. Most sheets, targeting the philatelic market, are readily available, but several are very scarce.

The Eagle Coaches Business Customised Stamp Sheets

A set of two prepared for Eagle Coaches (Bristol), generally accepted as the first issue released, sold for £2240 in August 2006. Other rarities worthy of note are the Benham 'Red Arrows' sheet (BC-056) of 2005 and the Westminster HRH The Queen - 80th Birthday Sheet (BC-085) of 2006.

Charity Smilers

In 2003 Cancer Research UK became the first organisation to lend their name to a set of charity Business Customised stamps featuring various individuals who have either been affected by the disease or contributed significantly to research or fundraising.

The four label designs were all printed on a single Smilers sheet of ten resulting in 4 x 4 blocks of 1 x strip of two stamps from each sheet.

The Cancer Research charity customised stamp sheet

The majority if not all the sheets printed (we have never seen a whole sheet other than that in the Royal Mail archives) were broken up as blocks or pairs and given away free in special presentation packs in exchange for a minimum donation of £5 to further the work of the scientists trying to find a cure for cancer. These are much sought after and exchanged hands for c. £500 in 2006.

It has been suggested, based upon conversations with Cancer Research employees dating back to 2004, that Cancer Research may not have received whole sheets from Royal Mail. It has been suggested that Royal Mail broke up the sheets and made up the Presentation Packs themselves, supplying these directly to Cancer Research. We may never know the full story!

- ◆ Pair one comprises: Bobby Moore perhaps England's most famous footballer, who led his country to victory in the 1966 World Cup final at Wembley. Bobby sadly died of bowel cancer and his wife helped launch this Business Customised Stamps promotion. Hannah Tonkin representing one of the 1,450 children in Britain that is annually diagnosed with cancer. Hannah lost an eye to the disease, but is now a happy and healthy young girl.
- ◆ Pair two comprises: Sir Paul Nurse CEO of Cancer Research UK and Dr Tim Hunt, responsible for Cell Cycle Control, who were jointly awarded the Nobel Prize for Medicine and Physiology in 2001 for their major discovery work. The final label depicts Stuart Calder, Ernie Arbery, Phyllis Black and Lisa Costley all of whom are fundraisers and promoters for the charity.

There are at least two variants of this presentation pack. Type 1 has the stamps conventionally positioned at the bottom and Type 2 has the stamps at the top. Whilst these appear to be different presentation packs, they are in fact the same card folded "inside-out". The stamps come from a single Smilers sheet and presentation packs in this author's possession include both pairs and blocks of four of the four-stamp/label combinations.

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

Since the arrival of Smilers sheets the potential of the media as a force for good has been recognised by a number of organisations and individuals including the folks at Ridgewood and a number of Business Customised and Themed Smilers stamp sheets have been produced to raise funds for charities. Apart from the Royal Mail inspired Cancer Research presentation pack as described above, as far as we know

The Westminster Collection can lay claim to being the first organisation to identify the potential of smilers media as a means to raise money for charity. Buckingham covers followed a year or so later and have produced a number of attractive sheets. Even Ridgewood Publishing have produced a couple of themed smilers sheets to raise money for Red Nose Day and Children in Need.

Finally, a London based promotions company, Shine Communications, can probably lay claim to raising the most interest in their Mothers Day/Fathers Day series of autographed smilers sheets all featuring images of various celebrity's children.

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

A shining example...

In March 2007, Shine Communications, a promotional company based in London offered, via an on-line auction site, the opportunity to buy a set of six charity Smilers sheet, raising money for the domestic violence charity, Woman's Aid. Royal Mail and Shine Communications produced a number of autographed and non-autographed sets of charity smilers featuring the photographs of famous celebrities children, to coincide with Mothers Day, under the theme of Motherhood and it is understood an autographed set sold for c. £1,000. Unsigned sets were sold at around £300.

Two of the six celebrities Charity Smilers Sheets sold in 2007

Building on this success, in March 2008 Shine Communications again offered 5 (subsequently 6) autographed celebrity smilers. Helena Christensen donated images of her son to raise money for the same charity, Woman's Aid, again under the theme of Motherhood to coincide with Mothers Day. The set of six sheets eventually sold at an on-line auction for a surprising £511, much lower than the previous signed set.

Two of the six celebrities Charity Smilers Sheets sold in 2008

In 2009 Shine Communications offered for sale by auction five pairs of signed charity smilers, the third year in a row that they had sold charity smilers to raise money Woman's Aid. Like the two previous years, the theme was based around Motherhood and the sheets were issued to coincide with Mothers Day. However, unlike the previous two years the general media got to hear about the promotion and it received much coverage in national celebrity press and newspapers. The pair of smilers sheets featured donated images of Damien Hurley, son of Elizabeth Hurley, model and actress, and Steve Bing. The other image was of Elwood Guinness, son of Jasmine Guinness, also a model and heir to the Irish brewing family's fortune. The sheets were signed by Elizabeth Hurley and Jasmine Guinness respectively.

Themed Smilers

These are essentially Customised Smilers sheets which have been produced primarily for the philatelic market. Since the advent of the definitive-sized Smilers sheets in 2005 there has been a growing trend to extend the concept of Customised Smilers Sheets into the production of relatively low print numbers (typically 10-100) of special event or themed sheets, many of them created by Smilers sheet enthusiasts. There are now over 500 different sheets identified by the authors, and these are listed in Chapter 5.

Example of an overprinted Themed Customised "Smilers" sheet

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

Some of the sheet designs produced are almost unrecognisable as customised stamp sheets due to overprinting of the border areas by the sheet producer, dramatically changing the appearance of the customised stamp sheet produced by Royal mail beyond recognition. We have noted that in recent years, the customised Smilers sheets produced by Royal Mail have considerably more border art and decoration than their earlier equivalents and in the opinion of the author the development of Themed Smilers sheets has had an influence over the selection of customised sheet designs by Royal Mail.

....whilst sheet production is impressive, the anniversaries are sometimes puzzling!

Circular Smilers

In January 2008, Royal Mail introduced a further innovation of their Smilers product in the shape of stamp sheets with circular photo-tabs. As far as we are aware, a world first, which has not been replicated elsewhere. The sheet formats (circular photo-tabs and staggered stamps) may have evolved as a result of Royal Mail's designs for the Smilers For Kids range of stamp sheets which also appeared in 2008 (October). The concept behind the circular label design was to provide an alternative label format more closer resembling a persons face than the rectangular label designs. The choice of stamp designs - Union Flag, Hello, Love - were (reportedly) the most popular in Royal Mail's range of Personalised stamps. The format was replicated for the Smilers For kids issue and Christmas issue issued in October/November 2008 and the 2nd issue Smilers for kids issue from April 2009. However they were dropped for the Christmas 2009 issue which may indicate that their appeal was rather short lived.

Chapter 1 - The Smilers Story

Commemorative Stamp Sheets

Commemorative Stamp Sheets were introduced by Royal Mail in 2008 and are in all respects similar in format and design to Business Customised Stamp sheets but are produced directly by Royal Mail to commemorate or mark anniversaries of national importance which didn't quite make it into the annual stamp programme.

The retail price of these sheets is currently competitively priced with the Business Customised sheets at £13.50 each and although sold at a premium over face they could have been called Smilers Presentation Packs since they are accompanied by a printed card stiffener containing many more facts about the event being commemorated and the sheet and its informative stiffener are encapsulated in a protective clear sleeve.

When the first Commemorative Stamp Sheet appeared Royal Mail announced that the range of existing customised stamps would be used to produce these new format sheets. This policy seems to have lasted eighteen months until the arrival of the first 2012 Olympic stamp issue in October 2009, which was also accompanied by a special commemorative sheet pack featuring the new range of Olympic stamps.

Smilers For Kids Packs

Smilers For Kids are A5 sized Smilers sheets sold in sealed packs and aimed primarily at the younger generation (under 12's). The packs consist of a sheet of 10 stamps and corresponding round generic tabs, with other materials designed to appeal to youngsters, or perhaps their parents or grandparents!

When these packs first appeared in October 2008 they retailed at £7.95 each, some £4.35 over face value of the stamps. As a result the reaction from the philatelic trade was "predictable" to say the least. Bowing to pressure from the souvenir cover trade who had no need for the pack contents (various children's activities, letter writing material, paper, envelopes etc.) or external packaging for that matter, Royal Mail hurriedly revised their plans and brought out generic smilers sheets comprising 20 stamps/generic-tabs in similar, but modified, designs to the Smilers For Kids A5 sheets. The Smilers for Kids Packs are designed to be displayed/sold on racks as a retail item much in the same way that some stamps were sold in the 90's in newsagents, WH Smith. It is believed that they were only available from the Philatelic Bureau at Tallants House, Edinburgh.

Chapter 2 - Generic /Collector Stamp Sheets

Generic / Collector Stamp Sheets

Generic Stamp Sheets, or Collector Sheets as they have more recently been termed by Royal Mail, are those sheets designed and produced by Royal Mail and comprise small sheets of 10 or 20 stamps plus attached labels/tabs set within a border design commemorating or celebrating an event or theme and sold at a small premium above face value of the actual stamps, generally via Royal Mail's Philatelic Bureau.

These sheets have collectively become known as or Smilers[®] sheets after the use of the Smiles/Occasions stamps in the very first sheet issued in 2000.

Smilers[®] is a registered trade-mark of Royal Mail who protect their trademark with vigour. We wanted to call this catalogue the Smilers Catalogue (or Smilers Cat for short) but this was declined by Royal Mail. We think this is a shame as these sheets have become to the stamp collector what "Hover" is to the vacuum cleaner market, a brand name to describe a generic product.

Sheets which appear similar to Generic Stamp Sheets but with personalised photo-images on the label/tabs are known as personalised or customised stamp sheets. Since 2000, the public have been able to order customised stamp sheets by sending their own photographs or label designs to the Royal Mail Philatelic Bureau. The cost of these photo-image label/tab customised stamp sheets is higher than the standard Generic Smilers sheets and are covered in some detail in Chapter 3. They were withdrawn by Royal Mail in 2015.

Royal Mail has announced 'Customized' Christmas stamps available starting October 3, 2000. There are two stamps available, a sheet of 20 of the 1995 19p Robin in a pillar box and a sheet of 10 first class (non-denominated) 1997 Father Christmas stamps. The sheets are available in two formats. The first contains Greetings labels along with the stamps. These are sold at a slight premium over face value, £3.99 for the 19p stamps (face value is £3.80) and £2.95 for the first class stamps (face value is £2.70). These

Glorious England - Error Sheet - "Isle Of White"

23/04/2007

Royal Mail recalled all the Glorious England Smilers sheets previously distributed to dealers and due for issue on 23rd April 2007. The sheet contained an unfortunate error on one particular label depicting The Needles at the Isle of Wight. In an inexplicable moment, Royal Mail re-named the island the Isle of White and as a result are now somewhat red-faced - at least both colours are in keeping with the Smilers sheet theme!

Wembley Stadium - Error Sheet "Emile" Instead Of "Emil"

17/05/2007

This is the "withdrawn" Wembley Stadium Smilers sheet which contained an error in the bottom label of the second column EMILE instead of EMIL. The error was spotted by Royal Mail before the official release date and all Key account holders were requested to return the error sheets and were subsequently supplied with the corrected sheets. All key Account holders except NEW YORK. Who, for some reason did not receive the recall notice. They were supplied with 400 sheets and some 300 or so are thought to have been sold to the public prior to this oversight being rectified by Royal Mail. At least 30 sheets were sold to Joseph Messinger who sold these on eBay and to dealers (Rushstamps). The rest are believed to have been distributed to Smilers collectors in the USA who are probably completely unaware of the error sheet int heir collection.

Harry Potter

This example of the Harry Potter sheet bears a withdrawn First Day of Issue Post mark Harri Potta - The story behind this is the licensing costs of the Harry Potter name. First Day Cover producers experienced extreme delay in finalising licensing arrangements for Special Postmarks. One enterprising individual decided to use phonetics as a way round the Licensing Laws. The postmark was approved but withdrawn within hours of the issue of the sheets by RM to limit the damage to their reputation. Portsmouth Stamps prepared between 50 and 100 First Day whole sheet covers and this sheet is from that batch, though to be the only examples of this

Chapter 3- Customised Stamp Sheets

Customised Stamp Sheets

Customised Stamp Sheets are a variant of the Generic Stamp sheets described in Chapter 2.

Since the International Stamp Show held in London in 2000 the British public have been able to have their photos printed alongside stamps in place of the generic label designs. This service, initially available only from booths at events such as Stamp Show 2000, has been extended and is now available to the public by post or by ordering on-line from Royal Mail at www.royalmail.com/smilers.

These sheets were available from the Royal Mail at a premium above the normal price of the Generic Stamp Sheets. The Royal Mail Smilers stamp reference number (SMXX) quoted in this catalogue identifies the Royal Mail Tallents House reference number used in the order process of Smilers sheets, as these appeared in the Royal Mail Smilers publicity material. These are described in more detail in Appendix B.

Since the introduction of definitive sized Smilers stamps in 2005 there has been a growing interest (particularly from Smilers collectors) in extending the concept of Customised Stamp Sheets into special event or themed sheets, created by Smilers enthusiasts and dealers. We are calling this variant of Customised Stamp Sheets Themed Customised Stamp Sheets to distinguish between those produced for personal use and those produced for commercial reasons.

Please refer to Chapter 5, for a non-exhaustive listing of Themed Customised Stamp Sheets known to the author which have been made available commercially to collectors. These sheets are in all respects similar to the customised stamp sheets listed in this chapter except that they have been produced as commercially available commemorative sheets often embellished with border overprinting or decoration which arguably enhances their appearance. In some cases they are completely unrecognisable as customised stamp sheets and for many collectors prefer these as collectibles rather than the purest customised stamp sheets listed here.

This customised sheet was issued on 1 May 2001, one month before the generic version. As can be seen, there are some significant differences between this and the generic sheet. In the top left margin the word 'Occasions' has been replaced with 'Celebrations & Thanks'. These personalised sheets were also available in different combinations, with 20 x SG2182 or SG-2184 or SG-2185 A "Cross" image appears on the label. The sheet was produced originally by Mike Sheppard.

Smilers 2015 - Dad

20/01/2015

Eight new Smiler stamp designs issued as part of a Smilers refresh programme to brighten up their personalised stamp programme, although with some echoes of earlier stamp designs. Unlike the last refreshment in 2010, these stamps are all 1st class inland rate. Publicity information from Royal Mail indicates that the design is by Jenny Bowers, with acknowledgements to the 'Peepshow Collective'. However, the 'Baby' stamp is clearly based on the 2004 stamp designed by renowned Japanese artist Satoshi

Chapter 4 - Business Customised Sheets

Business Customised Sheets

Business Customised Sheets are similar to the Generic stamp sheets, in that they comprise stamps and labels set in a decorative broader and contain the same Royal Mail stamps, but the borders and labels are designed by commercial organisations to promote a theme or commercial message. Generally these sheets are produced in much smaller quantities than the Generic stamp sheets and are sold to the sheet producer by Royal Mail at a premium over face value of the stamps in the sheet, depending upon the quantity of sheets ordered.

When first introduced, Royal Mail's production costs ranged from £3.70 a sheet of 10 x 1st class, i.e. £1 above face value for orders greater than 6000 sheets, to £9.00 a sheet of 10 x 1st class for orders of between 500-999 sheets, 500 sheets being (the then) minimum order. Additional options associated with the printing process, e.g. additional colours, unique sheet numbering etc., were also available at additional cost.

With the introduction of self-adhesive Smilers sheets in 2006, a two-tier pricing structure has existed, introduced in 2007, for both gummed and self-adhesive sheets. From 2007 Royal Mail relaxed the minimum print-run of these sheets from 500 to 100. Prices for gummed sheets range between £17.50 a sheet for the minimum order of 100 sheets to £4.25 a sheet for 6000 or more sheets. For self-adhesive sheets the price starts at £24.50 a sheet for orders in the range 100-199 and decrease to £4.50 a sheet for orders of 6000 sheets or more.

Sheet BC-099 is perhaps the first example of a low-print run business sheets ordered by a customer who only required 100 sheets to be printed.

Amongst the first Smilers Commercial Label Sheets to be produced were a pair for Eagle Coaches in 2001. They were produced in small numbers as a trial of the commercial Smilers concept by Royal Mail. Some 200-250 sheets are thought to have been produced to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of Eagle Coaches of Bristol in 2001 with something like 95% of the sheets broken up for postage. Consequently very few whole sheets remain and only 5 known pairs were in public hands at the end of 2005, the remaining whole sheets remain with the family owners of Eagle Coaches Limited. 2003 SPRING STAMPEX. 26 February - 2 March, The Business Design Centre, Islington, London.

The organisers commissioned Royal Mail to produce one of their Business Customised Sheets with a Stampex 50th anniversary label attached to each stamp. Single copies were given away to every visitor with the free catalogue. Second and subsequent singles were sold for £1; while a whole sheet cost £8 at the show (where 350 were sold to visitors). The print run was 3,100 sheets. Originally only 1,000 sheets were intended, but interest was so great an increased order was placed. The issue sold out quickly. The stamps were in portrait

This is our second ever Royal Mail commemorative sheet. Our first one was a run-away success which sold out quicker than we could believe! We understand our first sheet is already re-selling at over twice the price we offered. You can pre-book our second sheet at the same amazing price of just £19.95. It will not be ready until May 2006. If our 1st sheet is anything to go on, these have great investment potential - and would look terrific framed for your wall.

Tiny Numbers - We are only producing 1976 numbered sheets in total. This is a small number but we want to make sure they rise in price in the future. Most companies produce commemorative sheets to sell mint but

Chapter 5 - Themed Stamp Sheets, Covers

Themed Stamp Sheets and Covers

In this Chapter we look at the development of the Themed Customised Stamp Sheets and the souvenir/commemorative covers produced which bear these stamps/labels. They were originally produced by commercial organisations and individuals initially in very small numbers around a specific theme or event. When they first appeared they went almost unnoticed, until a few smilers enthusiasts started to take note and gradually helped increase their popularity amongst Smilers sheet collectors. Their popularity increased during 2005/2006 until that interest was effectively killed off by the emergence of too many of the, often over-priced, sheets produced by a few niche sheet producers. They are, in many ways, identical to the Customised Stamp sheets described in Chapter 3, perhaps the only difference is that instead of the usual crop of weddings, dogs and babies, the labels generally feature a design to commemorate an event, theme or other non-personal event.

Aberchirdier and Marnoch Community Association

The first themed sheets were produced in 2000 by the Aberchirdier and Marnoch Community Association who commissioned a pair of Christmas customised sheets featuring a stylised view of the New Marnoch Church on labels. The idea was to raise funds for their community by selling souvenir covers. Very few sheets were printed (c. 8-12 of each) of which probably no more than 5 of each survived as whole sheets.

Aberchirdier and Marnoch Community Association souvenir cover

Isle of Pabay

Scotland seems to have pioneered the use of customised stamp sheets because the folks on the Isle of Pabay responsible for the Isle of Pabay carriage labels since the early 1960's also picked up on the idea to use customised stamps and labels on souvenir covers. Just two weeks after the Aberchirdier and Marnoch Community Association souvenir covers were issued, the Isle of Pabay issued a souvenir cover featuring their own version of the customised Christmas stamps. Very few whole sheets are known to have survived as most were used on covers or the sheets broken up to sell singles to collectors.

British Philatelic Cover Producers Association

In 2001 the British Philatelic Cover Producers Association based in Worthing, Sussex commissioned a number of customised stamp sheets using the Hallmarks issue to commemorate the Australian Ashes Tour of 2001 and used the stamps/labels on commemorative covers dated 5 Jul 2001. At least one whole sheet and one half sheet survived but the majority appear to have been used on commemorative covers.

British Philatelic Cover Producers Association - Clashes for the Ashes (TS-004)

Two versions of the sheet were produced to service souvenir covers. Ten sheets of each the Cheers and Thanks and Welcome Hallmarks sheets were produced as evidenced by the customer order reference number printed in the lower left hand corner of these sheets (2400108-CAT10-NWH10).

British Philatelic Cover Producers Association - Clashes for the Ashes

These innovative covers with personalised labels and stamps must have proved popular because the British Philatelic Cover Producers Association produced a further commemorative cover in September 2001 commemorating the Cheltenham and Gloucester Trophy between Somerset CCC and Lancashire CCC held at Lords on 1st September 2001. Five sheets of each the Cheers and Thanks and Welcome Hallmarks sheets were produced as evidenced by the customer order reference number printed in the lower left hand corner of these sheets (2400101-CAT5-NWH5).

British Philatelic Cover Producers Association - C&G Trophy Souvenirs

We are not aware of any customised stamp sheets produced in 2002 but interest seems to have again picked by again in 2003 with a number of philatelic societies following the lead set by British Philatelic Cover Producers Association. The arrival of more colourful and imaginative stamp sheet designs in 2002/2003 seems to have breathed new life into these collectibles as evidenced by the activity of these Philatelic Societies:

Newlands Road Philatelic Society

Originally formed in 1953 and dissolved in 1967, its main claim-to-fame appears to have been that it was the first all-junior Philatelic Society. To commemorate the 50th Anniversary of its formation, one of the original founding members, Chris Phillips, commissioned four differently designed labels using the customised Flower stamp sheets issue and produced a number of commemorative covers. The only surviving sheets/half sheets belong to the Society and are not listed, however they are illustrated here for the sake of completeness. The Society appear to have produced two sheets of each with one or more sheets being broken up to service souvenir covers.

Sudbury Philatelic Society

In May 2003 the Sudbury Philatelic Society produced a numbered limited edition postcard featuring a hand painted view of Sudbury on one side and a customised Flowers Smilers stamp and specially designed label postmarked Sudbury and dated . The stamp/label combination were from a printing of an unknown number of customised Smilers sheets all of which it is understood were broken up for postcards.

Methodist Philatelic Society

In June 2003 the Methodist Philatelic Society commissioned an unknown number of customised stamp sheets featuring the CS-008d Occasions "LOVE" Smilers stamps which they used to produce three commemorative covers. Two covers were dated 17th June 2003 postmarked EPWORTH, DONCASTER, and LINCOLN respectively whilst the third was postmarked LLANDUDNO and dated 28th June on the occasion of the Methodist Conference.

Methodist Philatelic Society - John Wesley Tercentenary

Bedford Philatelic Society

The Bedford Philatelic Society produced two special covers in April 2004, on their Diamond Anniversary. The society produced a limited quantity of Customised Smilers sheets featuring the Christmas 2003, 2nd class and 1st Class Ice Sculpture designs. The Customised Labels bore a diamond design befitting the occasion.

The East Midlands Philatelic Exhibition was held on the 3rd April 2004 in Bedford which was also the venue for the Railway Philatelic Group annual convention. Two jointly-sponsored covers were produced on the occasion of EMPX 2004 featuring the Xmas stamps and labels produced by the Bedford Philatelic Society. It is understood from the Bedford Philatelic Society that only 10 sheets of each design were produced, of which half were broken up to service covers, 100 of each value were produced.

Bedford Philatelic Society covers and Stamp Sheets

Basildon Philatelic Society

The Basildon Philatelic Society produced two special covers and a presentation pack in November 2004, on the occasion of the 5th National Philatelic Exhibition, organised by the Association of British Philatelic Societies (ABPS). The special covers and presentation pack labels were produced to promote the 5th National Philatelic Exhibition but were also a celebration of the 10th Anniversary of the ABPS, and the 60th Anniversary of the Association of Essex Philatelic Societies ("AEPS"). The event was held on 20th – 21st November 2004 and two special postmarks were available, one on each day of the event.

ABPS - 5th National Philatelic Exhibition Covers and Presentation Pack

To service both the covers and presentation packs a number of Customised Rule Britannia Smilers sheet were produced by the society, featuring specially designed labels designed by C. W. Meade. A total of 100 presentation packs and 100+ pairs of covers were produced which sold at the event for £2 each.

The first printing can be identified by the Royal Mail order reference printed in the lower left hand corner of the sheets. The original printing order reference was 32639 and a total of 30 sheets were printed. This print run was used almost exclusively to service the presentation packs and special covers available at the event. A second printing of 20 sheets was commissioned to meet the requirements of members and that order reference was 43713. A third and final printing, reference 56966, was made and a total of ten sheets were printed with that order number in the lower left hand corner. Whilst a total of 60 sheets appear to have been produced, taking into account the number of sheets broken up for covers and presentation packs, the total number of whole sheets surviving is estimated at c. 30.

Basingstoke Philatelic Society

The Basingstoke Philatelic Society produced a pair of Customised Smilers sheets in 2005 to mark the 70th Anniversary of the Basingstoke Philatelic Society. Nearly 300 sheets were printed featuring two of the current Customised sheet formats. A total of 240 sheets of the Customised Flowers sheet (CS-013) were printed in four different printings. By comparison the Magic Customised sheet (CS-025) with only 40 sheets printed of which nearly half were broken up to make souvenir booklets sold to members on the day of their show is extremely rare.

CS-013

CS-025

CS-013 exists in four printings identified as follows:

- ◆ Original – 25 sheets, no code printed in white code box, Type 1 sheet, label design full height
- ◆ First re-print – 15 sheets, code number 9804502, Type 1 sheet, label design squashed
- ◆ Second re-print – 75 sheets, code number 0070438, Type 2 sheet, label design squashed
- ◆ Third re-print – 125 sheets, code number 0129654, Type 2 sheet, label design squashed

CS-024 exists in two printings, identified as follows:

- ◆ Original – 25 sheets, no code printed in white code box, label design full height
- ◆ First re-print – 15 sheets, code number 9804502, label design squashed

Approximately 150 souvenir stamp booklets were produced featuring the original printing of the Magic Smilers sheet (full height design on label) featuring either a pair of Smilers stamps and labels or two singles. The later are rarer than the pairs as only 20% of the booklets were made up using singles rather than pairs because of the printing layout of the Smilers sheets.

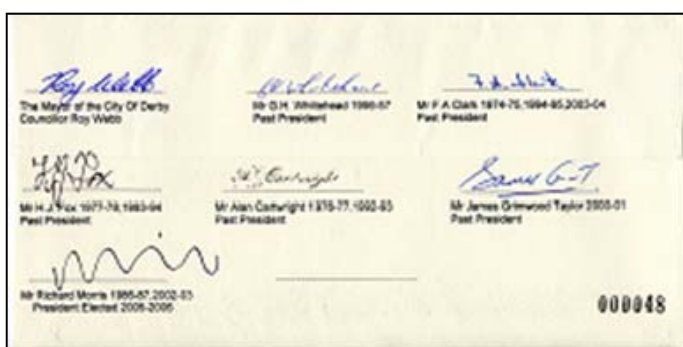

Derby Philatelic Society

In September 2005, a cover was produced by the Derby Philatelic Society to commemorate their 100th Anniversary since their inaugural meeting held on 11th September 1905. The cover features a King Edward the VII 1d Scarlet and a White Ensign Smilers stamp with special label featuring Derby Cathedral and DERBY PHILATELIC SOCIETY 1905-2005.

The Anniversary itself was marked by a special dinner featuring such delights as The Orange £5 Carrot and Coriander Soup and 1d Black Coffee, the menu for which formed a cover "stiffener"!

The cover is signed on the reverse by the existing and a number of past presidents of the Society together with the Mayor of the City of Derby.

The white Ensign flag/tab is from a customised Smilers sheet commissioned by Derby Philatelic Society, themed customised Smilers sheet (TS-010) and was designed by Society Secretary, Steven Street. Each stamp is attached to artwork taken from prints done by Mr Harold Macmillan's printers (one of Derby Philatelic Society's most famous philatelists and a Derby businessman) for a visit by members of the society in 1948 and the colour and date restyled to show the centenary period.

The first five sheets printed were proof sheets and rare as the background was a yellow-buff colour, which the Society felt clashed with the rest of the design so it re-coloured the background. The main printing was done with a white background and these were ordered in a bulk of 60 sheets the first 10 sheets of which were broken up and used on the centenary cover for the Society.

Sudbury Philatelic Society

Sudbury Philatelic Society again produced a customised stamp sheet and cover in May 2005 to mark their 40th anniversary. Two postcards were produced each featuring a print of a view by a local artist and both bore a Union Flag Smilers stamp and specially designed label. The stamp/label combination were from a printing of 25 customised Smilers sheets of which, it is understood, some 20 sheets were broken up for postcards, 200 of each design being produced. The five remaining Rule Britannia Customised Smilers Sheets (CS-020) are all thought to be in the hands of private collectors and are thus very rare indeed.

Britannia Navel College

2005 saw the centenary of Britannia Royal Naval College at Dartmouth and the College decided to commission fifty customised stamp sheets to celebrate the event. The stamps were used by the Commodores and Commanders office to send out mail that included invites to the Centenary celebrations. The Britannia Royal Naval College opened in 1905, in April 2005 college opened its doors to the public with a number of celebrations including a Grand Regatta Ball for 800 people, a Proms in the park on two nights for 3000 people and assorted minor functions such as hosting of US Navy Rugby team from Annapolis. The Commodore / Commander had 5 sheets (for postage use). Something like 25 sheets survived as whole sheets either sold in the college shop or subsequently to collectors by the organisers. The RM Order number of the sheet is 38461/Rule Britannia!

Self Adhesive Themed Customised Stamp Sheets

The popularity of these customised stamp sheets increased from 2005 following the introduction of the definitive-sized label sheets (DS01-DS06). These new-format stamp sheets provided a larger landscape-sized label and as a result a bigger canvas for themed label designs. Some enterprising individuals and companies developed the original idea of Customised Smilers sheets and produced a number of themed Customised Smilers sheets using pictorial images rather than personal photographs of individuals to promote topical events and subjects.

Example of early self-adhesive Themed Customised Stamp Sheet

London Boat Show 2006

Perhaps the first of these customised, definitive-sized smilers stamp sheets to really seize the imagination of the Smilers sheet collector was a pair of Customised Smilers sheets produced by Royal Mail and available from an instant Smilers booth at the London Boat Show during January 2006. In addition to the usual instant photo the Instant Smilers booth offered Customised Smilers sheets with the show logo instead of a photo. Whilst it is understood that sheets printed with the show's logo on the labels were never officially sanctioned or approved by Royal Mail, it is probably true to say that the huge increase in interest in this area of Customised Smilers sheets seen in 2006 can be traced back to the excitement generated by the pair of Boat Show Smilers sheets. Whilst not seen it is understood that a much rarer version of these sheets exists with alternate personal photo and show logo on the labels.

London Boat Show 2006

Honourable Artillery Company

The Honourable Artillery Company is a unit of Britain's Territorial Army. Its origins date back to 1537 when King Henry VIII granted a charter to the Guild of St. George, which subsequently changed its name to the Honourable Artillery Company (HAC). It is the second oldest military unit in the world. The HAC's Company of Pikemen and Musketeers are all former serving soldiers in the HAC and their uniforms date back to the soldiers at the time of the English Civil War (1641). The Company of Pikemen and Musketeers are the official bodyguard of the Lord Mayor of the City of London.

The Company of Pikemen and Musketeers were asked to join the oldest military unit, the Swiss Papal Guard in the celebration of their 500th Anniversary in May 2006. In recognition of this honour and in conjunction with the British Forces Post Office, the HAC decided to mark the 500th Anniversary of the Papal Guard by issuing a number of special covers.

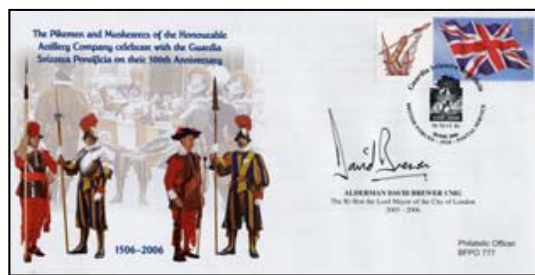

500th Anniversary of the Papal Guard Souvenir Cover

To further mark this event, HAC produced 90 sheets of customised Rule Britannia Smilers stamps and labels featuring the crest of the Honourable Artillery Company coat of arms. Of the 90 sheets printed, the majority of sheets were broken up to service special covers.

There appear to have been four variants of these covers:

- ◆ Unsigned, hand-stamped 06 May 2006
- ◆ As above, signed by Colonnello Elmar Th. Maeder, Comandante, Guardia Svizzera Pontifica
- ◆ As above, signed by Captain AR O'Hagan TD DL, Company Commander, Company of Pikemen and Musketeers
- ◆ As above, signed by Alderman David Brewer CMG, The Rt. Hon Lord Mayor of the City of London

500th Anniversary of the Papal Guard - Signed Souvenir Cover

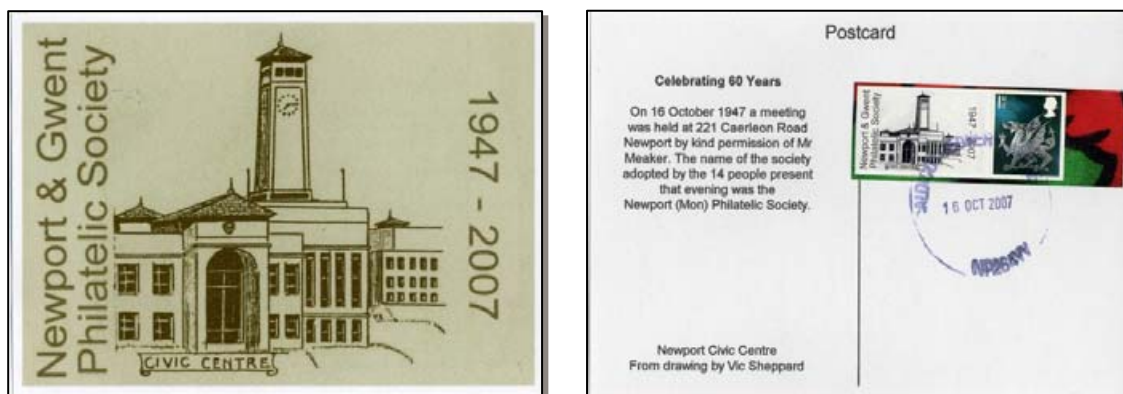

Of the original 90 sheets printed, around 12 whole sheets are thought to have survived intact and eagerly sought by sheet collectors, changing hands for up to c. £500 late 2006.

Newport and Gwent Philatelic Society

To mark its 60th Anniversary in October 2007, the Newport and Gwent Philatelic Society issued a themed Smilers sheet using the Glorious Wales customised Smilers sheet format with the label incorporating the club's logo, originally designed by Vic Sheppard. To celebrate their diamond anniversary the club produced a special "Smilers" sheet and postcard. The postcard was made available in small quantities to club members, with 39 postcards being franked with the special stamp and postmarked at Caldicot Delivery Office (NP26 4VV) on 16 October, the anniversary of the date of the first meeting of the club.

The Original printing of the Newport and Gwent Philatelic Society Smilers Stamp/Label

The original printing was limited to 16 sheets, 2 of which were broken up to service 39 postcards, with the remaining stamp/label being retained as the Society's archive copy. The remaining sheets (14) were issued as whole or part sheets based on pre-orders following the first use on 16 October 2007. The Postcards are franked with a Caldicot Delivery Office hand-stamp which is reserved for occasional use for local deliveries in the area. One final point of interest, the label is based on the logo of the club, designed by Vic Sheppard. It shows the civic centre in Newport, which is the location of the club, with the time on the clock set to 7.15pm, which is when the society

Original and re-print version of the Newport and Gwent Smilers sheet (2007/08)

To meet the somewhat unexpected demand, the sheet was re-printed in January 2008 (RM Order No 213300) with 20 sheets printed using the same customised sheet format and label design. Although they appear different the label design used was exactly the same for both printings. The original printing of these sheets appears to have been printed by Royal Mail using a thermal-ink or laser colour printer. The labels appear sharp, with the background colour a uniform pale bistre. For the re-printed sheets Royal Mail appear to have used a different printer as the labels are far more vibrant with the label background colour a distinct deeper bistre colour and more closely resembling the postcards issued by the society.

A word on the Themed Stamp Sheet listings that follow

In the pages that follow we have attempted to identify and list all known themed Stamp Sheets that have been made available to collectors through either philatelic societies, mail-order or on-line web-based auction sites such as eBay in reasonable quantities. Since we started recoding these themed sheets we have identified around 500 different designs. Our prefix for these sheets is TS which stands for Themed Smilers and in 2007 we introduced a minimum limit to qualify for a listing in the Themed Smilers List of 10 sheets and later increased this to 25 sheets by year end to filter out a worrying but increasing trend in the number of limited sheets produced by individuals who were looking to capitalise on collector interest for very limited editions.

Whilst not wishing to judge these very limited editions we did feel that if they were included these limited availability sheets in a collectibles list collectors would be encouraged to collect them to complete their collection. Since the prices being charged for these sheets were often ten times the production costs (around £15) we felt we could no longer support the inclusion of these sheets since their limited availability meant they were hardly collectible. That said, we also did not want to sit in judgement on these sheets or their producers either! A dilemma! In January 2008 in response to requests from collectors for a listing of these limited availability Themed Smilers we introduced a new list of Limited Availability Smilers to provide a reference list for those sheets available in limited numbers. The prefix for this list is TSL to denote their limited availability status.

Apart from the London Boat Show pair and other Instant Smilers produced at Royal Mail booths (e.g. Autumn Stampex 2006), all have been produced by either philatelic societies, stamp dealers or private individuals. Guide prices and quantities are not provided as the quantities associated with these sheets is relatively small, in the range of 10-50 with some being produced in quantities as high as 250, and in some instances unknown. Given the small numbers produced the prices are determined largely by the market demand for these sheets and is variable at best. That said, the Daily Mail Boat Show pair are likely to set you back £250 - £500 for the pair, if you can find them!

The interest in these Themed Smilers seems to have hit a peak around mid 2007, after which they seem to have lost some of their initial collector appeal, perhaps as a consequence of the increasing number (and cost) of the sheets appearing on the collector market. Other factors may also have contributed to their reduced popularity, for example: the increased interest generated by the collecting market in Royal Mail's Business Customised Sheet products, which occurred during 2007, due primarily in the increase in choice and production frequency from various Business Customised Sheet producers.

That said there still seems to be a small market for these overprinted smilers sheets and some of them are quite stunning works of art in their own right. The majority of which are produced by a certain gentleman who would wish to stay anonymous and we respect that desire. His sheets seem to be sold through limited outlets either via the GB Stamp Centre or Rushstamps and of the 500 or so known sheets this gentleman who has described himself as a musician and goes by the nom de timbre of ARTIZAN (amongst others) is probably responsible for upwards of 25% of this number. However, we have to grant him this - his work is quite superb.

40th Anniversary - Concorde 001

25 May 2007

In December 1967 at Toulouse, with over 1,100 guests present, the first prototype Concorde 001 was ceremonially rolled out for the media. With the British prototype almost complete, British technology minister Tony Benn, a previous British Postmaster General, announced at Toulouse that henceforth the British aircraft would also be called Concorde as opposed to the previous English spelling of Concord - the "e", he said, stood for "excellence, England, Europe and entente". On 11th December 1967 the 001 prototype was rolled out from its assembly hall at Toulouse. This was the first public appearance of the aeroplane everyone wanted to see and it did not disappoint. With much work still to be completed on the ground in the form of checks and testing it would be another two years before the Concorde was ready to make its maiden flight on 2nd March 1969.

Elm Park (Fiesta 2007)

02 June 2007

Attractive Smilers sheet from the same people who brought us the "I Love Elm Park" and "Elmer the Elf" Smilers sheets. The Elm Park Shopping Precinct Regeneration Committee (EPPRC) have announced the issue of a new themed Smilers Sheet to coincide with their Fiesta 2007 event - a sort of urban fete - which commenced on 2nd June 2007. We understand that EPPRC produced 50 Smilers sheets featuring a new label design and of these 50 sheets, 40 have been torn split in half to produce 40 pairs of half sheets which went on sale at Elm Park at 9am on 2nd June 2007.

The Virtual Stamp Club

17 July 2008

The Virtual Stamp Club is a sort of an on-line philatelic newspaper or magazine, with a VERY active "Letters to the Editor" section, or Forum. In the Forum, you'll find news, information, opinions and advice. We promise every question will be answered, even if it's just to say "I don't know" - but more likely, the answer will be "I don't know, I'll find out". The Forum was set up on Delphi in 1996 - 12 years down the line we are up to over 174,000 messages in 32,000 threads. This Smilers sheet is from Ian Bilings (Norvic

TS-517 - Centenary of the Battle of Jutland

The Battle of Jutland took place between the British Grand Fleet and the German High Seas Fleet on the 31st May 1916 in the North Sea, off the mainland of Denmark. Involving some 250 ships and 100,000 men, this battle was the only major naval surface engagement of World War I. Both sides claimed victory in this indecisive battle, though Britain retained control of the North Sea.

Chapter 6 - Commemorative Stamp Sheets

Commemorative Stamp Sheets

Commemorative Stamp Sheets were introduced by Royal Mail in 2008 and are in all respects similar in format and design to Business Customised Stamp sheets but are produced directly by Royal Mail to commemorate or mark anniversaries of national importance which didn't quite make it into the annual stamp programme.

The retail price of these sheets is currently competitively priced with the Business Customised sheets at £13.50 each and although sold at a premium over face they could have been called Smilers Presentation Packs since they are accompanied by a printed card stiffener containing many more facts about the event being commemorated and the sheet and its informative stiffener are encapsulated in a protective clear sleeve.

The first sheet to be announced by Royal Mail was issued in April 2008 and commemorated the centenary of the formation of the Territorial Army in 1908. The early publicity images which accompanied the announcement of these Commemorative Stamp Sheets (as Royal Mail have branded them) clearly went through something of a transformation before the final design was issued, as can be seen from the following images, the Tanks were transformed into to a helicopter although the internal stiffener card images have survived!

Chapter 7 - Smilers for Kids

Smilers For Kids Packs

Smilers For Kids are A5 sized Smilers sheets sold in sealed packs and aimed primarily at the younger generation (under 12's). The packs consist of a sheet of 10 stamps and corresponding round labels, with other materials designed to appeal to youngsters, or perhaps their parents or grandparents!

The Smilers For Kids packs all evolve around four popular children's character themes.

- Flower Fairies
- Beatrix Potter
- Noddy and Big Ears
- Mr Men and Little Miss

When these packs first appeared in October 2008 they retailed at £7.95 each, some £4.35 over face value of the stamps. As a result the reaction from the philatelic trade to these inflated prices was "predictable" to say the least. Bowing to pressure from the souvenir cover trade who had no need for the pack contents (various children's activities, letter writing material, paper, envelopes etc.) or external packaging for that matter Royal Mail hurriedly revised their plans and brought out these generic smilers sheets comprising 20 stamps/labels in similar, but modified, designs to the Smilers For Kids A5 sheets. These sheets of 20 stamps/labels are listed under Chapter 2 - Generic Smilers. However, the larger sized sheets are not included in Royal Mail's Smilers Album for some unexplained reason. The Smilers for Kids Packs are designed to be displayed/sold on racks as a retail item much in the same way that some stamps were sold in the 90's in WH Smith. To our knowledge they have only been available to date from the Philatelic Bureau at Tallants House, Edinburgh. Interestingly, on the rear of the first four packs issued there is an indication of things to come. From this we can estimate that in this particular series, at least, there are 21 Smilers For Kids Packs planned. At the rate of four per year this will keep us busy well into 2012. Perhaps Mr Sporty will make an appearance in time for the Olympics!

Chapter 8 - Isle of Man Stamp Sheets

Isle of Man Customised Stamp Sheets

In January 2008 the Isle of Man Post Office joined the global trend towards issuing stamp/label sheets as an additional philatelic offering although to date they have not been tempted into the personalised stamp/label market, possibly due to their relatively small domestic market.

That said, in the short time they have been active in this branch of stamp sheet production they have been both innovative and experimental producing a number of interestingly different and diverse issues using different production processes to the delight of the collecting community.

The first issues appeared as part of a much larger issue relating to the retirement and launch of new ocean going liners by the Cunard line and almost went unnoticed and unannounced by the Isle of Man Post Office. Work quickly spread as did interest in these issues. The Isle of Man Post Office even referred to these customised stamp sheets as "Smilers sheets" on their website and these have proved popular with British Smilers sheet collectors and maritime thematic collectors alike.

Rather uniquely, AG Bradbury collaborated on a number of Smilers projects with the Isle of Man Post Office producing the Isle of Man's first quasi-Business Customised type stamp sheets later that year.

Further experimental formats were tried during 2008 including bank notes and an additional almost A3 sized Smilers sheet - which must hold something of a record as Britain's largest stamp/label commemorative sheet .

Is this Britain's largest Smilers sheet?

Chapter 9 - Jersey Stamp Sheets

Jersey Customised Stamp Sheets

Jersey Post introduced a range of personalised sheets (prefix JPS) in 2012 based on the self-adhesive format adopted by Royal Mail with these sheets also printed by Cartor (France). In 2015 Jersey Post expanded their customised sheet range by issuing commemorative sheets (prefix JCS) also with 20 stamps/labels per sheet and these continued to be issued through to 2018, when these issues seem to have dried up.

Following the issue of the Simply Jersey Booklet stamps in May 2012 Jersey Post experimented with Personalised Stamp sheets and trialed on their website a format comprising 10 x Mount Orguell self adhesive stamps and invited the public to submit designs based on a label and background format.

This trial was very brief and to my knowledge was only available for a couple of weeks before the offer disappeared and was eventually replaced by the Jersey Commemorative Sheets format in 2015. I ordered a very few sheets using this format commemorating the 17th Anniversary of the Penny Black and was surprised when these arrived. To my knowledge this is the only use of the Mount Orguell stamp in personalised sheet format and I believe there are less than 5 sheets of this design in existence anywhere making this sheet extremely rare and collectible.

Is this Britain's rarest personalised stamp sheet?

Smilers Stamps ..

... so-called because they have appeared in Customised Smilers sheets and have been designated as such by Royal Mail. In truth, these are stamps selected from various special issues and intended to be used on mail with adjacent, specially printed, personalised labels bearing a picture of Aunt Dot, the dog or the latest member of the family. Until 2002 these were referenced by name e.g. TEDDY but with the introduction of the 2002 Occasions sheet (which duplicated some of the earlier named stamps e.g. LOVE, each was been given a Royal Mail reference number in Smilers publicity material. The following reference guide will assist the reader in interpreting the reference information provided in the listing of Themed Customised Smilers Sheets in Chapter 5. Where sheets had multiple stamp designs the stamp design used by Royal Mail in their publicity material, is illustrated.

Example of a dual-photo-image Smilers sheet

To facilitate the ordering of half/full sheets of stamps/photo-tabs, Royal Mail changed the Smilers Stamp coding system around January 2008. Using the previous codes DS01 to DS22, the letter N was added to signify the applicability of the New pricing policy from 1st January 2008. To distinguish between full sheets and half sheets the number 10 was added to the Smilers reference code.

DS01 became DS01N for full sheets of 20 stamps/photo-tabs whilst DS01N10 was used to order a half sheet of 10 stamps/photo-tabs. Whilst this served a purpose for the first few months of 2008 to distinguish orders made prior to and after January 1st, it was rather cumbersome and meaningless as the year progressed.

By October 2008 Royal Mail had introduced a modified coding system reminiscent of the original Smilers coding system, in the format SMXX-YYYYYYY where XX referred to the sheet type (stamp design/10 or 20 stamps/rectangular/circular photo-tabs) and YYYYYYY was the customer order reference number. Royal Mail released an updated list of Smilers codes which covered their entire range of the then available Smilers sheets which was intended to make consumer ordering easier. It soon became apparent however that the system was not in universal use by Royal Mail as different order reference systems were apparently in use. The SM prefix has also been seen as a suffix i.e. YYYYYYY-SMXX.

Examples of Smilers Customer Order reference numbering

Smilers sheets with the SM prefix were printed by Royal Mail sub-contract printer, St. Ives Print, who had been Royal Mail's sole print supplier for posters, advertising and other business related materials i.e. everything except stamps. Please refer to the following Smilers Coding List as supplied by Royal Mail for a full list of these codes on the pages that follow, originally issued in October 2008 and updated to end of 2009 to include the 2009 Xmas Stained Glass Smilers sheets.

Santa Claus is coming to town!
This Christmas, Royal Mail is giving you an ever greater choice of Special Stamps for your Christmas mail than in past years. Building on the success of Smilers™ stamps at Stamp Show 2000, sheets of Smilers™ for Christmas, shown right, are now available.

Festive First
You may have already heard about the Smilers™ for Christmas stamps that can be produced with your picture next to a festive First or Second class stamp. Well these stamps are also available with a charming yuletide label attached. As you can see, these sheets come in either sheets of twenty Second class (19p) costing £3.99 or ten First class (27p) at £2.95.

It's a cracker!
The 1st class stamp, designed by John Gorham, was originally issued as part of the 1997 Christmas Cracker issue. This issue was one of Royal Mail's most popular secular designs for Christmas and as part of Royal Mail's policy of getting more Special Stamps on mail and promoting philately to a wider audience, this superlative Santa was selected for the Smilers™ for Christmas sheet. Both 1st class and 2nd class sheets are printed by The House of Questa and will only be available by mail order or from Postshops.

When the Red Red Robin...
The 2nd Class stamp featuring a Robin first appeared in the 1995 Christmas Special Stamp issue. This stamp is reproduced for Smilers™ for Christmas in a sheet of twenty stamps. Attached to these stamps are charming labels which carry either a Glad Tidings or Seasons Greetings text message. Both this item and the First class sheet can be ordered overleaf. As both these stamps have previously been available, there will be no Presentation Packs or Postcards associated with this issue.

Want to know more?
If you want to know more about getting your photograph on Smilers™ for Christmas, please call our telephone helpline on:

Terms and Conditions

All orders for customised stamps are subject to these terms and conditions of contract. You should read them carefully, particularly paragraphs 1 and 4, and must sign the order form as indicated to show your acceptance of them, otherwise your order will not be accepted.

1. You are responsible for ensuring that (and represent to Royal Mail that):
 - 1.1 you have the right to copy the image contained in the photo you submit; and
 - 1.2 you have obtained the permission of any person (or their parent or legal guardian where appropriate) other than yourself, who appears in the photo, for their image to be reproduced.
2. Royal Mail may refuse to reproduce a photo where (or where Royal Mail believes that):
 - 2.1 you do not or may not have the rights and/or permissions referred to in paragraph 1;
 - 2.2 it is or may be defamatory;
 - 2.3 it depicts partial or full nudity;
 - 2.4 it is offensive, obscene or indecent;
 - 2.5 it promotes any particular religious beliefs or may offend against any person's religious beliefs;
 - 2.6 it may be offensive to any racial, ethnic or other group;
 - 2.7 it is political in nature or may be identified with a political cause or campaign;
 - 2.8 it is intended for use in a commercial or business context;
 - 2.9 it is not in keeping with Royal Mail's brand identity;
 - 2.10 it is in any other way inappropriate to appear on a customised stamp.
3. Where Royal Mail refuses to reproduce a photo a refund will be made and the photo will be sent back to you by ordinary post (except for defamatory, offensive, obscene or indecent photos which may be destroyed or forwarded to the Police).
4. You agree fully to indemnify Royal Mail for any costs or damages which Royal Mail incurs as a result of any claim arising from the reproduction of any photo submitted by you which is defamatory or which breaches any other person's copyright, privacy or other rights in any way.
5. Copyright in the customised stamp will belong to Royal Mail and you will not have the right to reproduce it.
6. Royal Mail will try to return your photo to you in good condition, however the handling and copying process may result in damage to the photo and Royal Mail does not accept liability for such damage.
7. If you have agreed on the order form that digital copies of the photo you submit may be retained by Royal Mail then copies will generally be kept for a period of six months from the date of your order (or any re-order) but may be destroyed at any time to Royal Mail's discretion.
8. The quality of reproduction of your photo in the customised stamp is dependent upon the quality of the photo itself and is also subject to the limitations of the copying and printing process and you accept that it is not, therefore, possible for Royal Mail to ensure that the reproduction will be exact or that the image will be flawless.
9. You acknowledge that when customised stamps are used for postage a post mark will be applied which may partially obscure the image.
10. The design of stamp used in the customised stamp is subject to change.
11. Royal Mail will try to process and dispatch orders within 14 days of their receipt, however, this is subject to postage delays and volume considerations so you should allow plenty of time when ordering customised stamps.
12. Royal Mail may withdraw customised stamps at any time and any payments made in respect of orders not yet processed will be refunded.

Smilers™

personalise your stamps

make that special occasion extra special

They'll know it's from you

Imagine stamps which had the face of a member of your family on. Then think about the impression you could make by sending someone a letter with their face on a stamp?

You can do all this and more with Smilers™ from Royal Mail. Smilers™ are your favourite photo in stamp form attached to one of eight great 1st class stamp designs.

20 1st class stamps each with your smiling face attached will cost just £12.95 including posting and packing. The more you buy, the less you pay.

Special Christmas Stamps

Smilers™ are an ideal way to personalise your seasonal greetings. You can put your favourite photographs right up there with Father Christmas (1st class). Stamps take no more than 2 weeks to return to you.

Right size, right result

Please remember, don't submit a photograph larger than 7" high x 5" wide, or smaller than passport-size. Send us only prints, we cannot accept negatives, slides or digital files. Wherever possible you should retain a copy of your original photograph.

How to order

1. Choose your favourite photo. Faces work best. Try to avoid big groups or lots of background.
2. We can only use photographs. We can't use negatives, slides or digital files.
3. The photo must be no smaller than a passport photo and no bigger than 7" high and 5" wide. All photos must be vertical not horizontal.
4. Whenever possible, send us a duplicate photo rather than your valuable original.
5. We will return your photo with your order but can keep a digital copy on file in case you want to re-order more Smilers™.
6. For each photo you must fill in a separate form. The minimum order is 20 stamps with each photo.

7. You can order several stamps to go with your photo for example you could have 40 'Dennis the Menace' stamps and 60 'Baby' stamps using the same photo. Please note that the 'Thanks' and 'Cheers' sheet of stamps is made up of 10 stamps of each design.
8. Complete the order form remembering to sign it at the bottom. Enclose your payment details and photograph and send them to us in the attached pre-paid envelope.
9. For help with your order or to request more forms please telephone the Helpline on 0845 074 2000 between 8.30am and 5.00pm Monday to Friday.
10. If you intend to use your Smilers™ for a souvenir envelope we can arrange to have a special post mark cancellation. Call the Helpline for details.

Smilers Publicity Leaflet and Order Forms (2) !

RM Ref: 02CAA c. May 2001

Help family and friends put their stamp on any occasion.

Do you know someone who has a birth or wedding coming up? Is there a celebration or house-warming that needs to be announced? Or maybe someone needs to send out some extra special thank you cards. Now you can help make sure it's a piece of mail that will be treasured for ever. All it takes is Smilers! For You from Royal Mail, available to order with the Occasions range of stamps.

Just imagine somebody receiving a letter with a photo of a family member or friends in the top right hand corner. Quite simply, the pleasure will be priceless. And happily, a sheet of twenty First Class Occasions stamps, each with an image of a smiling face or faces attached, will cost just £12.95, including postage and packaging. What's more, the more you buy, the less they cost.

As you'll see, we've attached two order forms, so you can keep one and pass the other on to an intended friend or family member. Photocopyable order forms are also perfectly acceptable, or you may order additional forms on 0845 574 2202.

How to make a great impression.

It's really easy to get a great result. Your first task is to choose an appropriate photo. (This negative, slides or digital file, please.) The photo needs to be no smaller than the size you'll use in a postage slot, and no larger than 5" x 7" wide.

Make sure that the image is in vertical format (so that it is taller than it is wide), otherwise it won't fit the space provided.

A sharp-up shot is best, and it should be sharp and well defined. We are not able to enlarge or improve your photos.

Then read the full instructions below, and following the order form.

How to Order.

Please read this carefully before completing the order form. For enquiries or additional forms please telephone our Help Line on 0845 574 2202 between 9.30am and 5pm, Monday to Friday, or visit our website www.royalmail.com/occasions.

To place an order for Smilers! For You photos complete one order form per photograph.

- The maximum size photograph we can accept is 5" high by 3½" wide – and the smallest should be no smaller than passport size, i.e. 2½" high by 1½" wide. Remember, the smaller the photograph the less we have to adjust it to fit the space available.
- Please ensure all photographs are vertical rather than horizontal in format. This is to minimise any inappropriate cropping.
- We will accept only photographs. We cannot accept, for example, negatives, slides, digital files, etc.
- For good results your photograph should be sharp and well defined. Don't let the background detract from the main subject in the centre. People should be photographed waist up or closer with the face dominating. With group shots try to limit to four people.
- Note that we cannot enhance, specifically crop or enlarge images.

Wherever possible, send us a duplicate of your photograph rather than the original.

We will return your original photograph, but, in order to make re-ordering easier, will retain it in digital form for six months from the date of this order. If you do not wish us to retain your photograph in digital form, please tick the opt-out box at the bottom of the order form.

Please retain this leaflet for future reference, and return the completed order form with your photograph and payment details. For enquiries or to request more order forms, please telephone the Help Line on 0845 574 2202 between 9.30am and 5pm, Monday to Friday.

Please sign the order form and return it in an envelope addressed to Smilers! For You, FREEPOST 21 South Oak Crescent, EDINBURGH, EH12 9PA, United Kingdom.

If you intend to use your continued stamp for a souvenir envelope and it is important that the post mark cancellation is of prime quality, you will have to use the services of a Royal Mail Special Handstamp Centre. Please telephone the Customer Stamp Centre Helpline on 0845 574 2202.

New occasions to celebrate and a reissue of Cartoon stamps

Marking special occasions

Royal Mail is releasing five new stamps in the Occasions range to use for celebrating weddings and anniversaries, a new baby, a new home or any family celebration. There are five new, fun Occasions stamp designs to choose from, in addition to those released in February 2001.

Each theme is represented by its own distinctive, contemporary design, these include Love and Romance, Moving Home and New Baby, but now with the two new themes of Hello and Best Wishes. So, here's an opportunity to add new Occasions to your collection.

Occasions stamps are available from 5th March 2002. You can order Presentation Packs, First Day Covers (FDCs) and Postcards of the Occasions issue from this Preview. See FDC details opposite and prices for the other items on the order form overleaf.

A welcome reissue of Cartoon Stamps

Great news for cartoon collectors! Royal Mail has reissued the collection of Cartoon Greeting Stamps first issued in February 1996. These popular stamps are the work of five contemporary cartoonists of the time - Mel Calman, Larry, Charles Barsotti, Leo Calum and Jack Ziegler, and are now being reissued in a generic stamp sheet with comic labels. You can order these stamps from this Preview using the order form overleaf. (There are no new Presentation Packs, First Day Covers or Postcards with this stamp sheet.)

Don't miss this unique opportunity. Order form overleaf.

Put your own stamp on the occasion with the new range of Smilers™

You can make an occasion even more special with Smilers™ from Royal Mail. Imagine the surprise when your family and friends see your smiling face in the top right hand corner of the envelope.

Smilers™ is a way of creating a stamp with your own photograph and can be ordered with the new Occasions range of stamps.

Once you have a Smilers™ order form, simply choose an appropriate photograph, a close-up shot is best, and send it off to us with your order. 20 First Class stamps, each with your choice of photograph attached, will cost just £12.95 including postage and packing. Smilers™ are also available with other ranges of Royal Mail stamps.

For more information or to order, call us on 0845 074 2000 between 8.30am and 5.30pm, Monday to Friday, or visit www.royalmail.com/smilers

Certain occasions call for your own individual stamp

Whatever the occasion, you can now mark it with your own individual stamp. Royal Mail's range of Occasions stamps features five delightful new designs for you to use to make any invitation – weddings, christenings, housewarmings or family celebrations – much more fun with Smilers™

There are five different stamp themes for you to have fun with – moving home, new baby, love and romance, best wishes and hello. Each stamp theme is represented by its own distinctive, contemporary, fun design and this new range is available from 23rd April 2002. So put your own personal stamp on any occasion with Smilers™ using Royal Mail's Occasions range.

To order call 0845 074 2000 between 8.30am and 5.30pm, Monday to Friday, or visit www.royalmail.com/smilers

YOUR CHANCE TO SUPPORT ENGLAND IN THE WORLD CUP 2002

THE 2002 WORLD CUP HAS KICKED OFF IN SEOUL ON MAY 31ST AND ROYAL MAIL HAS MARKED THE OCCASION WITH A WORLD CUP COMMEMORATIVE MINIATURE SHEET FEATURING THE FLAG OF ST GEORGE AND NEW SMILERS™ STAMPS.

No one will forget Michael Owen's hat-trick when England beat Germany 5-1, or the drama of David Beckham's last-minute free kick which secured England's place in the World Cup finals.

As England face the might of Argentina, Sweden and Nigeria, you have the chance to show your support with these new Smilers™ stamps from Royal Mail.

Just imagine how surprised your friends and family will be when they see your cheering face on the envelope. And what a great way of showing your support for the England team.

We look forward to your order. It's easy - here's how to do it.

- 1 Choose your favourite photograph. Faces work best. Try to avoid big groups or lots of background.
- 2 Original photos only please. We can't use negatives, slides or printed images. Digital images can be sent via the Smilers™ website.
- 3 Photos - no smaller than a passport photo and no bigger than 7" high and 5" wide. All photos must be vertical not horizontal.
- 4 Whenever possible send us a duplicate photo rather than your irreplaceable original. We'll return your photo with your order and can store a digital copy on file so you can re-order more Smilers™.
- 5 The minimum order is 20 stamps with each photo.
- 6 You can order several stamps to go with one photo - for example you could have 40 'Hello' stamps and 60 'Love' stamps using the same photo. A new order form with each photo please - a photocopy can be used.
- 7 Complete the order form (naming/birth to sign it at the bottom). Send your payment and photo with the order form. Smilers™, FREEPOST SC05817, 21 South Gyle Crescent, Edinburgh EH12 9PH.
- 8 Your Smilers™ will be sent to you within 14 days. We're sure you'll be delighted with the service and quality.

Call into your local Post Office® Branches, or visit the website for more on our online forms or leaflets. Now, you can get Smilers™ for fun with your new digital camera or scanner? Visit www.royalmail.com/smlers

Want more leaflets, order forms or simply some advice with your order? The Smilers™ helpline line is available to take your call on (local call rates) 0845 074 2000 (Text Talk - 18001 0845 074 2000). (Open 8.30-5.00 Mon-Fri).

You can use your Smilers™ to make a souvenir envelope, call 0845 074 2000 for details or how to arrange a special postmark cancellation. Also ask the team about Smilers™ generic sheets and the new Smilers™ collectors album.

Please complete a separate form for each photo. Please write in BLOCK CAPITALS. Tear off and return the order form along with your photo.

XXXX
S.W.A.L.K

Occasions 2003 is the third set of Occasions stamps to be issued. This is the first time that Royal Mail has produced a set of stamps that gives customers the chance to interact on a stamp by making their own mark, and then sending their own personalised message on an envelope.

Tick, lick and stick

There are six 1st Class stamps in the set and each stamp has three tick boxes for the sender to choose the most appropriate message, allowing them to congratulate, commiserate, express their love or give someone the all-important thumbs-up or thumbs down – all before the letter is even opened. The messages on the stamps are as follows:

<input type="checkbox"/> Gold star	<input type="checkbox"/> See me	<input type="checkbox"/> Playtime
<input type="checkbox"/> I ♥ you	<input type="checkbox"/> XXXX	<input type="checkbox"/> S.W.A.L.K.

Presentation Pack

The Presentation Pack was written and illustrated by Steven Appleby, well-known to readers of The Guardian for his Saturday comic strip.

Accompanying the charmingly quirky illustrations is a fun survey to discover what sort of person you are and the kind of letter you'd write.

Smilers™ Customised and Generic Sheets

The Smilers™ Occasions 2003 generic sheet consists of 20 1st Class stamps made up from the six Occasions 2003 stamp range, with each stamp attached to a relevant label. The generic sheet was specifically designed for this stamp issue.

Smilers™ Album

The brand new Smilers™ Album comes with 12 luxury pages to hold all Royal Mail generic sheets to date (2000-2002). This elegant black binder with gold blocked spine and cover will also hold customised Smilers™ leaves (available separately) allowing you to display your complete Smilers™ collection in style.

after the watershed

Make sure you order your Classic ITV stamps today. They won't be repeated. Available until 14 September 2006.

Our six Classic ITV Special Stamps celebrated the 50th anniversary of Independent Television broadcasting in 2005. The issue features some of Britain's favourite programmes, including cult classic The Avengers, high-brow drama Inspector Morse, and the unforgettable 70s comedy Rising Damp. The First Class stamp features Emmerdale, voted as Britain's favourite ITV soap opera by the public. Each stamp shows an image from the programme's opening sequence.

Presentation Pack
Written by journalist Eleri King, this fully illustrated Presentation Pack will help you relive some of ITV's thrills, laughs and tears. The pack showcases the six Special Stamps and explores in detail ITV's popular broadcasting history and highlights from the past 50 years.

Smilers® Generic Sheet
To celebrate the 50th anniversary of ITV, Royal Mail teamed up with ITV's Good Morning show to find the viewer's favourite soap opera. The winner was Emmerdale, featured on this delightful Smilers® sheet. Labels include covers from the TV Times, special ITV schedules through the years and background facts on Coronation Street, Crossroads, The Bill and Emmerdale.

Mint Stamps
Designer Kate Stephens chose the opening sequence of the programmes as the designs as these not only represent the programmes, but also work well as a stamp.

Hello Customised Sheet

easy peasy

It's easy to get your pictures on Smilers® – do it either digitally or by post.

Digital
Not only do Customised Smilers® add the most personal touch to your mail, but the whole process of making them couldn't be simpler. Just visit www.royalmail.com/smilers to upload your photo(s) and place an order for your Smilers®. You should receive your Smilers® within 10 working days of ordering. The last posting days for Christmas are 19 December for 1st Class and 16 December for 2nd Class. The recommended photograph size is 500k and it should be saved as a JPEG or TIFF format (you can post digital files to us on CD-ROM using the attached Smilers® Customised Sheets order form). It'll take less than five minutes to make your photo look great online and you'll be able to zoom in and out, and place it on the template in just the way you wish.

By Post
If you don't have internet access, or your photo is not in a digital format, then make an order with the Smilers® Customised Sheets form in this Preview – simply send us your photo and we'll do the rest. We accept both photographs and photographic prints (no bigger than 10" x 8"). It's a good idea to write your name and address on the back of your photo, to ensure that your order stays together. And if you only want us to use a certain part of the picture then please indicate this clearly.

Tips
Whether you choose a traditional print or a digital photo, you should bear in mind the style of stamp you want. Landscape photos (horizontal) work best with the smaller sized stamps and portrait photos (vertical) work best with the larger sized stamps.

Ordering is easy

»Choose your moment

A photo with one or two faces and a simple background works best. Remember, it will be reduced to stamp size.

Prints: we accept both photographs and photographic prints (please, no bigger than 10"x8"). If you only want to use part of the photo, please indicate which part.

Digital photos: these should be either JPEG or TIFF format on CD-ROM. We recommend a minimum size of 500KB and maximum size of 3MB.

Remember, use landscape images (horizontal) for the rectangular stamp and portrait (vertical) for the circular stamp.

»Choose your design

Choose one of our stamp designs to go with your photo. You can choose one from the opposite page.

»Send it to us

Online: to send digital photos, go to www.royalmail.com/Smilers You'll find simple instructions on how to create your Smilers®, using one of the many available designs.

By post: each photo needs a new form. You can find forms at your local Post Office® branch, download them from our website, or use payment. Send them to: Smilers, FREEPOST SC0 587, EDINBURGH, EH12 9PH. Please write your name and address on the back of the photos to ensure the order stays together.

make your mail sparkle

Smilers® are stamps which allow you to add a personal touch to your mail by combining our stamps with your favourite photograph.

To make Christmas 2008 even more special, just start snapping away, choose your best picture, send it to us and we'll print your image next to our stamps. The result? Together we'll have created your own special piece of magic. Just like that.

Which will you choose?

There are plenty of different Smilers® stamps to choose from. You can add some festive fun with the new 1st Class, 2nd Class and Airmail Christmas Postmark stamps. You can order the charming Father Christmas, Snowman or Angels Smilers® from previous Christmas issues. Or alternatively you can order a non-Christmas Smilers® stamp from our extensive range below.

Rule Britannia	Love	Hello	Teddy	Flower
Robin	Harry Potter	Balloons	Big Bang	New Baby

Previous Christmas Smilers®

Christmas Smilers® from both 2006 and 2007 are available in their original format. These stamps remain postally valid.

English/Welsh Dual Language Smilers Publicity Leaflet

Available from June 2005 in dual languages. Generally, they are double sized pamphlets with English text in the lower half and Welsh text in the upper half, depending upon your point of view! Some of the panels have been repositioned in the Welsh versions although the basic content is the same. In this pamphlet, the Welsh language and English language sections were separated by a perforated fold which could be easily separated.

In the subsequent four-panel pamphlets the whole is un-perforated and folded inwards, concertina fashion, and then folded over and down like a conventional map. Given that the English pamphlet already existed, it is somewhat puzzling as to why both languages were printed on a double sized sheet when perhaps only one language at any one time would be read. However, the introduction of dual language Smilers pamphlets is an interesting development by Royal Mail, but probably owes more to their legal obligation to reflect other national languages within UK rather than any specific Welsh marketing effort.

FIAT GRANDE PUNTO

Fiat Auto UK: In September 2006 FIAT Auto UK released a Business Customised Stamp sheet to celebrate the sales success of its Grande Punto supermini. To publicise these stamp sheets FIAT Auto UK also produced a pop-up desktop advert which could be found on most dealers counters at the time of the release of these stamp sheets. The sheet designed and released by Fiat Auto UK can claim to be the first true non-philatelic inspired Business Customised Stamp Sheet as it was released in large numbers (6000) targeting a non-philatelic consumer.

TRUPRINT

Truprint Film Processing: Royal Mail joined forces with Truprint, one of the UK's largest mail-order film processing companies and using the medium of their film processing envelopes, supplied with a variety of magazines and mail-shots, invited the public to turn their cherished photos into Customised Smilers sheets.

They were also available from dispensers at railway stations and Post Offices branches, having been folded down vertically by machine in advance to make them one-third A4 size (DL) to fit in the racks. Here is a selection of some of those mailing envelopes.

Smilers Retail Packs

In 2006 Royal Mail considered introducing a new marketing concept for Smilers through retail outlets such as WH Smith & Sons. The Smilers Retail Pack was proposed as a neat, straight-off-the-shelf product designed to make life simple for both the retailer and customer. It was proposed that retailers would purchase the Packs, which were specifically designed for easy hook and hang display, at discounted prices to sell direct to customers. The Retail Packs did not contain any stamps, instead they contained a Smilers information and ordering leaflet with a unique ID number that identified the product as a retail purchase. Customers would simply purchase the pack - which includes the cost of processing – fill out the order form, sending it back with the selected image. The cost of packs was proposed at £14.95 per pack, the then cost of a Customised Smilers sheet. Despite going as far as manufacturing some mock-ups and holding discussions with some retail outlets we are not aware that this scheme was ever implemented by Royal Mail.
